

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Job Overview

An integral member of the youth department, the Project Coordinator, under the directions of the Youth Initiatives Manager, will play a vital role in developing, implementing, and overseeing the culturally relevant and empowering programs for Indigenous Youth. As a Project Coordinator at the NAFC, you must excel in curriculum development, cultural competency, and a commitment to fostering excellence within Indigenous communities.

Key Responsibilities

Design and develop culturally sensitive and engaging curriculum materials for youth programs, ensuring alignment with Indigenous values, traditions, and community needs;

Collaborate with educators, community leaders, and experts to incorporate diverse perspectives into the curriculum;

Coordinate the implementation of youth programs, including workshops, mentorship initiatives, and educational activities;

Provide guidance and support to program facilitators and educators to ensure effective delivery of the curriculum;

Ensure that educational materials respect and promote Indigenous languages, arts, and traditions; Collaborate with community members, elders, and educational institutions to gather input and feedback for curriculum development;

Organize community events and workshops to raise awareness of youth development initiatives;

Establish systems for monitoring the effectiveness of these programs;

Collect and analyze data to assess the impact of the curriculum and make data-driven improvements;

Manage resources, including educational materials, budget, and equipment, to support the successful implementation of youth programs.

Note: This job description is not designed to cover or comprehensively list activities, duties, or tasks. Instead, responsibilities may change, or new ones may be assigned, as required, that contribute to the overall success of NAFC.

Qualifications

Proven work experience as a Project Coordinator or similar role, preferably with a focus on Indigenous youth;

Bachelor's or Master's degree in Education, Canadian Studies, Indigenous Studies, or a related field.

Knowledge of urban Indigenous communities and issues;

A commitment to advocate with and for Indigenous Peoples across Canada;

Passion for youth leadership, education and empowerment;

Ability to work collaboratively with diverse stakeholders;

An ability to prepare and interpret flowcharts, schedules and step-by-step action plans;

Solid organizational skills, including multitasking and time management;

Strong working knowledge of Microsoft Project and Microsoft Planner;

Critical analysis skills; ability to analyze policy, program and projects;

Strong written and verbal communication skills, and interpersonal skills;

The ability to write proposals and fundraising for youth programs is an asset.

The ability to work in both official languages is an asset. Fluency in an Indigenous language is also an asset.

Thank you for your interest in this position at NAFC!

Qualified candidates of Indigenous ancestry will be given preference in accordance with s. 16(1) of the Canadian Human Rights Act. Candidates are encouraged to self-identify in the cover letter.Â
