

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Link's Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Contractually Limited Appointment, Assistant Professor in Studio Art

The School of the Arts at McMaster University invites applications for a one-year contractually limited appointment in Studio Art at the rank of Assistant Professor to commence July 1, 2019. The successful candidate will have an MFA or PHD and demonstrated record of effective teaching in Studio Art at the university level. The specific areas of teaching expertise are: ART 3D03 (T1) Practical Issues, ART 2IS3 (T1) Independent Studio, ART 1SI3 (T1) Studio Investigations, ART 3GS6 b (T2) Guided Studio, ART 3ID3 Integrated Dimensional Media (T1), and two sections of ART 1TI3 (T2) Understanding Images and technology. The successful candidate will contribute to administrative work including portfolio interviews and recruitment events.

The studio program at McMaster is committed to promoting a safe studio environment where environmental responsibility is integrated into daily practice. The faculty complement is small and team-focused working to deliver an integrated studio program. We are seeking individuals with an interest in collaborative and interdisciplinary approaches and a desire to connect with community.

Applicants should include a letter of interest, a curriculum vitae, a statement of teaching philosophy/practice and 10 images of artist work. Candidates must include contact information for three referees.

Applications and supporting documents should be directed to Virginia Aksan, Acting Director for the School of the Arts, and must be submitted in one PDF file by applying online via the McMaster Academic Careers website (<http://www.workingatmcmaster.ca/careers/>)

(Faculty Positions, Job Opening ID 26321)

Inquiries may be directed to Rose Mannarino, Administrative Coordinator for the School of the Arts at mannari@mcmaster.ca.
