

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Link's Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

JOB SUMMARY

Come work as a Regional Director, Indigenous Anti-Racism and Indigenous Cultural Safety with Vancouver Coastal Health (VCH)!

Vancouver Coastal Health is looking for a Regional Director, Indigenous Anti-Racism and Indigenous Cultural Safety to join the team at the Indigenous Health team.

Reporting to the Executive Director, Indigenous Health, the Regional Director, Indigenous Anti-Racism and Indigenous Cultural Safety drives the organizational strategy for Indigenous Specific Anti-Racism and Indigenous Cultural Safety at VCH. The Director has the responsibility for developing, managing, driving and promoting local strategy through a range of activities and programs as aligned to a comprehensive Indigenous specific Anti-Racism Action Plan. They are the key point of contact with programs/departments and leaders across the organization, partnering to educate, advise, guide and champion behaviours and to support and incorporate Anti-Indigenous Racism into core organizational systems and practices, achieving improved results from both a patient/resident/client perspective as well as organizationally.

The Regional Director, Indigenous Anti-Racism and Indigenous Cultural Safety will develop a three year strategy and action plan to advance racial equity and will oversee leadership development resources and programs related to cultural safety. The Director will have broad oversight of addressing Indigenous specific anti-racist policy and procedures, strategic coaching, curriculum, training, programs and support for leaders throughout VCH to create an Indigenous specific anti-racist organization that is a safer workplace for staff and medical staff and equitable health care organization for patients, clients and residents.

The Director will partner closely with VCH Medicine, Quality and Patient Safety, Regional Programs, People, Regional Director Equity, Diversity and Inclusion and Communications and Regional Director, Communications Projects and Anti-Racism and other leadership across the organization, as well as provincial and national counterparts to advance Indigenous specific anti-racism and Indigenous cultural safety for providers and patients/residents/clients. Apply today to join our team!

As a Regional Director, Indigenous Anti-Racism and Indigenous Cultural Safety with Vancouver Coastal Health you will:

Lead and directs the development of overall and applicable Indigenous specific anti-racism related initiatives and activities across VCH, in collaboration with the Vice President, along with Equity, Diversity and Inclusion and Anti-racism leadership, ensuring an integrated framework and consistent service delivery in alignment with VCH business needs.

Formulate organizational and departmental strategy and policy direction through consultation with the organizational leaders and implements and evaluates the long-term goals, policies and procedures necessary to operationalize the strategic plans. Measures the extent to which annual organizational goals and objectives have been met within a changing environment.

Develop the strategic plan for the delivery and development of organization-wide Indigenous specific anti-racism and Indigenous Safety programs and services: workshops, presentations, learning modules, coaching, support and other efforts that promote cultural safety and racial equity.

Oversee and coordinates the measurement of Indigenous Specific Anti-Racism program effectiveness by utilizing multiple, integrated approaches to evaluating goals, and makes improvements as necessary.

Develop and implements comprehensive strategy initiatives such as leadership development programs/coaching/mentoring/psychological safety supports for Indigenous employees.

Engage with and enrolls partners across the organization, including senior leadership team members, to ensure understanding and engagement within the Indigenous specific anti-racism strategy and program's intent, philosophy, outcomes, accountability, and measures of success.

Performs other related duties as assigned.
