

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Ministry of Forests, Lands, Natural Resource Operations and Rural Development

This position can be located in Smithers, Burns Lake or Terrace.

Director, Strategic Initiatives

$87,600.00 â€“ $114,100.00 annually

The Ministry of Forests, Lands, Natural Resource Operations and Rural Development is the Province's agency responsible for land and resource management in B.C., which includes the protection of the Province's archaeological and heritage resources.

The Director, Strategic Initiatives serves regional and provincial priorities and goals and provincial initiatives, and develops and maintains a broad network of strategic and business leadership relationships across the Natural Resource sector agencies to communicate/collaborate project objectives and progress, and promote successful delivery of the priorities and goals of the Ministry.

Through this function, the role leads and contributes to strategies associated with the natural resource sector shift to the One Provincial Land and Resource Manager promoting economic and environmental sustainability. This position serves as a strategic liaison into non-government organizations, industry associations, First Nations' organizations, and federal and municipal governments. In addition, the Director coordinates on initiatives that cut across resource sectors. This position requires excellent problem solving, communication and change management skills with the ability to exercise a high degree of judgement in a situation of significant uncertainty associated with post organizational restructuring, business transformation and shifting roles and responsibilities. This position is an integral part of the Regional Management Team [comprised of the Directors and District Managers of the Region] and reports directly to the Regional Executive Director.

Qualifications for this role include:

• A degree in resource management or related studies, and a minimum of 7 years of experience in resource management; or the equivalent combination of education and experience may be considered.

• Experience in a management capacity dealing with politically sensitive and provincially significant issues and with developing policy, procedures and corporate practices.

• Preferably 2 years' experience in a senior management capacity including business and organizational planning.

• Preference may be given to experience related to First Nation consultation and relationship building.

• Experience leading and coaching diverse teams is preferred.

• Must have a valid Class 5 BC driver's licence.

• Travel is a job requirement.
