

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

We offer employment accommodation across the recruitment process and all aspects of employment consistent with the requirements of Ontario's Human Rights Code < <http://www.ohrc.on.ca/en/ontario-human-rights-code> >. Refer to the application instructions below if you require a disability-related accommodation.

What can I expect to do in this role

- Monitor and ensure compliance with policy and legislation for elementary and secondary school-level education
- Ensure ongoing accountability by school boards for standards of education
- Monitor, assess, and report on the effectiveness of the school system and the implementation of ministry policy and programs as related to Indigenous Education

- Participate on regional/provincial committees and task forces
- Promote and support ministry initiatives to First Nation, Metis and Inuit partners.

Location: Etobicoke

How do I qualify

Mandatory

You are a member in good standing with the Ontario College of Teachers.

Education Knowledge

- You understand the principles, standards and practices at Ontario elementary and secondary school levels, current and emerging education issues, programs and curriculum to provide interpretation and guidance to school boards and schools.
- You can acquire knowledge of the role and objectives of the Indigenous Education Office to monitor program implementation and effectiveness of the Province's school system.

Interpersonal, Stakeholder Management and Issues Management Skills

- You have well-developed interpersonal, stakeholder management and issues management skills to investigate and anticipate outcomes of new/revised policies and programs, identify issues surrounding various education communities (e.g., French-language education community, First Nation, Metis and Inuit Education partners) and collaborate with senior board officials.

Communication and Leadership Skills

- You possess effective oral and written communication skills to prepare and present reports, recommendations, and consult with various groups in education, including First Nation, Metis and Inuit partners and school board partners, to facilitate input into policies, guidelines and initiatives.
- You have demonstrated leadership skills and professionalism to demonstrate authority and credibility when representing the ministry to schools, school boards and the public.

Analytical and Research Skills

- You have analytical and research skills to assess compliance and ensure accountability of school boards with established education standards and make evidence-based recommendations.
- You can assess the effectiveness of policies and programs, identify shortfalls and make recommendations for improvement.

Salary Range: $1,869.89 - $2,471.85 Per Week
