

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Requisition ID: 198790

Join a purpose driven winning team, committed to results, in an inclusive and high-performing culture. In the role of Incident Responder, you're responsible for responding to account-level threats and attacks at scale. This includes event and incident triage, threat-actor journey mapping, containment, remediation, and identification of root cause contributors. You regularly connect with your Fraud Threat Management colleagues to ensure ongoing situational awareness across the team. Your calm demeanor, adherence to protocols, and industry expertise will inspire confidence as you safeguard our customers and the Bank. Is this role right for you In this role you will:

- Respond to account-level attacks targeting any of Scotiabank's products and digital properties in Canada in accordance with our incident protocol, incident communication matrix, service-level commitments, and all associated playbooks. Regularly review and incorporate lessons learned.
- Produce and provide timely incident communications for a variety of audiences in accordance with the incident management protocol, incident communication matrix, and associated playbooks to ensure awareness and appropriate levels of engagement as part of response activities.
- Identify systemic issues, reoccurring problems, and identified threats/vulnerabilities to our Fraud Problem Management function. Ensure these and other root cause contributors are captured within post-incident reviews.
- Work to maintain and exceed established incident management KPIs including mean-time-to-detect (MTTD), mean-time-to-containment (MTTC), mean-time-to-remediation (MTTR) as measured by event type and severity.
- Intake and triage of events to determine appropriate event type, severity, and prioritization. Provide secondary support to Incident Analysts on events that require additional review and escalation.
- Identify and recommend changes to cyber-fraud monitoring and alerts that you and your colleagues receive to ensure ongoing improvements to our early-detection efforts.
- Maintain ongoing awareness of the cyber-fraud threat landscape, including through certification, continuing professional education (CPE), industry group participation, threat intelligence feeds, and direct research. Based on lessons learned during incident response, identify suggested changes to our comprehensive incident management playbooks outlining processes, tools, data, and technology requirements, as well as communications protocols and cross-functional interaction models.

Do you have the skills that will enable you to succeed in this role We'd love to work with you if you have:

- At least one (1) years of hands-on experience within a cyber-fraud or security incident management role.
- Demonstrated knowledge in one or more of: incident management, threat-intelligence, and customer identity & access management (CIAM).
- Relevant cybersecurity industry certifications are an asset (ex. CISSP, CISM, CISA, GCIH, ITCA, etc.).
- Other relevant certifications are an asset (ex. CFE, CIPP/C, ITIL, etc.).
- Bachelor's degree in computer science, cybersecurity, or similar is an asset.
- Bilingual in Spanish is an asset.

What's in it for you Continuous learning and advancement via workshops with external providers, courses, and conferences. Lead strategic projects with a significant impact on business line growth. A culture that promotes teamwork and cross-functional collaboration to achieve business goals. Inclusive workplace that values diversity of thought, background, and experience; Opportunity to work and collaborate with teams and partners across different geographies, enriching professional experience and understanding of global payment markets.; Location(s): Canada : Ontario : Toronto
