

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

au moins cinq (5) années d'expérience pertinente ou combinaison équivalente d'études et d'expérience.

• Minimum of five years of related work experience, including some project and/or client relationship management experience.

• Experience working with Indigenous Government and Indigenous organizations (on and off reserve) is a must.

• Solid knowledge of housing finance, planning, delivery, administration, portfolio management and project maintenance systems, and ability to analyze, reason and work within complex frameworks.

• Knowledge of CMHC housing programs and services available to develop affordable housing for Indigenous Canadians.

• Superior oral and written communication skills, along with excellent negotiation and presentation skills to deliver complex information to a variety of audiences.

• Comprehensive understanding of Indigenous housing and awareness of social, economic and political trends affecting the provision of housing.

• Demonstrated relationship management abilities and negotiation skills, including persuasive discussions and presentations to small and large groups of senior officials.

• Political and cultural sensitivity, specifically possess a solid knowledge of Indigenous culture and traditions.

• Demonstrated ability to identify and foster key partnership relations that will facilitate the achievement of improvement objectives.

• A valid driver's license, as this position requires some travel, including site visits.

• Travel is required throughout assigned region by road and plane.

What you will be doing

• Provide advice and guidance to senior management to ensure effective, efficient and coordinated delivery of products, programs and services to targeted Indigenous clients and to ensure consistent application of policies and practices.

• Represent CMHC in interactions with clients and partners to discuss CMHC's full suite of programs and products.

• Provides effective expertise and guidance on a range of housing strategies in support of key clients and their portfolios, including delivery of cross-functional services and initiatives to advance housing outcomes.

• Primary contact and support in the development and application of adapted housing solutions. Will also play an important role through out the delivery process of housing projects.

• Gather and share valuable client information and intelligence to support the relationship between CMHC and key clients.

• Develop and maintain client relationships and play a key role with regional decision-makers ensuring that CMHC programs and services are delivered in a way that meets both client needs and CMHC objectives.

• Leverage cross-functional collaboration to enhance client experience, resolve issues and promote business synergies.

• Identify client needs and provide intelligence to other teams, leading to the development of improved products and processes to meet changing needs

• Support CMHC objectives by ensuring efficient communication of messages and information related to changes in affordable housing policy or program direction.

• Develop and execute plans and strategies under a key account management framework to develop solid client relationships, deliver initiatives and identify solutions that meet the unique needs of clients and stakeholders.

• Ensure an appropriate level of risk awareness (incl. political) and the implementation of a risk-based culture within the area of responsibility.
