

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

If you are committed to public service, enjoy collaborating with others, share our values and have a desire to learn and grow, join The City of Calgary. City employees deliver the services, run the programs and operate the facilities which make a difference in our community. We support work-life balance, promote physical and psychological safety, and offer competitive wages, pensions, and benefits. Together we make Calgary a great place to make a living, a great place to make a life.

The City is committed to fostering a respectful, inclusive and equitable workplace which is representative of the community we serve. We welcome those who have demonstrated a commitment to upholding the values of equity, diversity, inclusion, anti-racism and reconciliation. Applications are encouraged from members of groups that are historically disadvantaged and underrepresented. Accommodations are available during the hiring process, upon request.

As a Funding Strategist, you will advance the social well-being of Calgarians through a wide range of social service planning, funding program management, and social service policy development. The focus of the position will be to lead and/or support multiple funding strategies including, but not limited to, the Building Safer Communities Fund, the Crime Prevention Investment Plan, Siim'ohksin: Wahkotiwini, and other funds. Primary duties include:

- * Collaborate with other business units, funders, government partners, and community partners to identify the need for social service programs and funding.
- * Contribute to internal and external collaborations and system integration of funding programs.
- * Develop, maintain, and update social service funding frameworks and oversee the implementation of strategies for multiple funding programs.
- * Evaluate funding proposals and make recommendations for the allocation of funding, with input from internal and external partners.
- * Evaluate and monitor the effectiveness of various funding streams and identify opportunities for continuous improvement.
- * Support the program management and contract with other levels of government, as required.
- * Prepare and present written reports, briefing notes, memos, and presentations to a variety of audiences.
- * Act as a resource by providing informed opinions based on research, best practice, and engagement.

Qualifications

- * A master's degree in Social work, Public Administration, Policy Development, or a related field.
- * At least 5 years of experience in the social services field, with an emphasis on grant administration, process development, project management, and impact assessment.
- * Previous experience and knowledge of non-profit organizations and those who deliver social service or community development programs will be considered an asset.
- * Experience in building and maintaining relationships and collaboration with Indigenous communities and Traditional Knowledge Keepers is an asset.
- * Knowledge of Indigenous history, culture, ceremony, and languages relevant to the Treaty 7 region is an asset.
- * Experience supporting multi-partner collaborations to meet a goal or respond to an issue is preferred.

* Strong written and verbal communication skills, interpersonal skills, and a demonstrated ability to work on a team in a changing and political environment.

* Possess the ability to engage effectively with a variety of audiences and partners.

Pre-employment Requirements

* Applicants will be tested for appropriate skills.

* Successful applicants must provide proof of qualifications.
