Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Posting Date: April 12, 2024

Deadline: April 26, 2024

Southwest Ontario Aboriginal Health Access Centre (SOAHAC) is a diverse, dynamic, multiservice Indigenous health and wellness agency. We strive to provide quality, wholistic health services by sharing and promoting traditional and western health practices to enable people to live in a more balanced state of well-being. SOAHAC provides services to Indigenous people including those who live on and off reserve, status, non-status, Inuit, and Metis within the Southwest, Waterloo-Wellington and Erie St Clair regions. SOAHAC has a mandate of ensuring that health services are accessible, of high quality, and are culturally appropriate. It is SOAHAC's objective to build health care capacity within Indigenous communities. Currently, we are seeking the services of a Registered Practical Nurse (RPN) to join our interdisciplinary staff team, working at our London site.

Reporting to the Integrated Care Manager in Chippewa, the RPN will facilitate the development, implementation, and adaptation of a care plan, deliver direct care, and provide case management to assist clients to manage their own care and navigate through the various services available within the community and hospital settings. The RPN will work in partnership with the client and family to establish goals that are safe, realistic, and reasonable by assessing, planning, coordinating, organizing, implementing, evaluating, and supporting transitions with other services for the client in collaboration with the primary care provider, and other integrated team members. This position may be expected to travel regularly within London-Middlesex area as required. In addition, they may be required to support other SOAHAC sites in order to meet SOAHAC's operational needs.

Requirements

- A Registered Practical Nurse (RPN) in good standing with the College of Nurses of Ontario
- A minimum of three (3) years of experience preferably in community or primary care
- Experience working with Indigenous people in community-based settings is an asset
- Demonstrated ability to provide client-focused, trauma informed and culturally safe care
- Demonstrated ability to complete initial and ongoing client assessments (clinical and diagnostic reasoning) and provide nursing care through evidence-based guidelines
- Demonstrated ability to manage time and resources effectively
- Sound knowledge of community health practice, chronic disease management, geriatric and palliative nursing practice within a client- and caregiver-centered care approach
- Effective leadership capabilities and strong ethical standards and a commitment to professional development and life-long learning
- Effective working independently and in a team environment
- Excellent skills in case management and working with/coordinating interdisciplinary care teams

- Demonstrated ability to communicate effectively with clients, families, public, community partners, primary care team members and other professionals and agencies using verbal, written and computer communication means
- Demonstrated critical thinking skills within scope of practice including clinical judgment and problem-solving skills
- Knowledge of transitions through continuums of care
- Knowledge of other health care professions and their role in client care.
- Valid Ontario Driver's "G" license; personal auto insurance and access to a reliable vehicle
- Willingness to participate in Indigenous Cultural Safety Training, teachings and ceremonies
- Clean and current police check as a condition of employment
- Up to date immunizations and records
