

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Link's Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Major Responsibilities

Are you ready to take on a leadership role that will impact Torontoâ€™s most vulnerable populations? If so, bring your expertise to the City of Toronto as Supervisor, Programs within the Shelter, Support & Housing Administration Division.

As Program Supervisor, you will be responsible for meeting the needs of client and community agency partners in a client-focused, inclusive manner that supports the service plan, policies and procedures developed by the Division, and the City. This is an exciting opportunity to utilize your supervisory skills, as well as your understanding of the needs and barriers experienced by newcomers, families, people who use drugs, youth, Indigenous communities, people living in encampments, persons with mental illness, and those in need of income supports. You must show a demonstrated commitment to inclusivity and diversity.

Your primary responsibilities as a Program Supervisor will be varied, but you will be expected to:

â€¢ Implement detailed plans and recommend policies/procedures regarding program-specific requirements while embracing harm reduction and anti-oppression approaches to service delivery

â€¢ Monitor system service, ensuring compliance with the shelter standards, financial and reporting

â€¢ obligations, operating agreement and any other relevant guidelines and regulations â€¢ Foster leadership skills, accountability and competency skills development within front-line management staff â€¢ Supervise, Motive and train unionized and non-unionized staff, including students on placement and volunteers, ensuring effective teamwork, high standards of work quality and organizational performance, and continuous learning, and encouraging innovation in others

â€¢ Supervise the day-to-day operation of all assigned staff, including scheduling, assigning and reviewing work, authorizing and coordinating vacation and overtime requests, monitoring and evaluating front-line staff performance, approving salary increments, hearing grievances and recommending disciplinary action when necessary

â€¢ Provide input into, and administer, assigned budget, ensuring that expenditures are controlled and maintained within approved budget limitations as it relates to the shelterâ€™s program matters â€¢ Oversee the quality and compliance of established and new contracts supporting services to clients, including refugee/asylum claimants â€¢ Contribute to the multi-year service planning process for their programs

â€¢ Liaise with internal and external stakeholders, such as outside agencies, health care and government services in partnership with, or through the supervision of, multidisciplinary work teams to provide coordinated service delivery for clients

â€¢ Represent the Division in meetings with other divisional representatives and service providers, other orders of government and funders, and support strategic divisional and corporate initiatives, as required

- Monitor program operations and developments/emerging trends within the drop-in sector, shelter systems and community-based services, plan/coordinate service delivery and develop new partnerships to close program gaps
- Employ a Housing First framework in all aspects of service delivery in the shelter
- Promote and implement harm reduction-based programming and policies
- Monitor performance of community agency staff, providing comments as part of a program review
- Ensure that staff members in the program are trained in appropriate methods/techniques via individual sessions based on the changing needs of the clients
- Provide guidance to staff on the interpretation of relevant legislation and policy, and determine training needs based on the changing needs of the clients
- Ensure that files and shift records are properly maintained through regular review
- Ensure that program service delivery goals are met, complete client/program needs assessments, identifying performance/program objectives and establishing service evaluations, and report to Shelter Managers
- Assist in the development of data systems and performance measures for the assigned program unit(s) to identify emerging trends, and demographics, and establish program benchmarks
- Assist with and/or resolve client complaints/issues, liaising with other City staff, as required
- Be responsible for facilities management, including writing Requests for Quotations, seeking same and liaising with contractors
- Develop/implement operating systems/procedures in accordance with the Shelter Standards and Division goals/objectives
- Ensure that all City policies and procedures, including financial policies/procedures, are uniformly understood and properly implemented by all staff
- Propose programming innovations and improvements to client growth and independence, that are cost effective, reflect changing realities and enhance the shelter's and City of Toronto goals
- Analyze, and plan for, short- and long-range staffing and organization requirements, making recommendations for the efficiency and cost effectiveness of the program unit's operations
- Coordinate and/or facilitate multidisciplinary case conferences, workshops, information sessions, meetings and special events, ensuring that both client and staff needs are met
- Assist with research studies of the program unit(s) and carry out needs assessments and program evaluations, as required
- Assist the Manager in community outreach, public education and the development, coordination, and monitoring of community partnerships
- Negotiate, along with the Manager, contractual arrangements with third-party organizations
- Ensure that the program(s) are stocked with all operating supplies and receives effective maintenance services
- Conduct critical incident management, including investigation, debriefing and reporting
- Coordinate with Public Health regarding effective communicable diseases strategies and responses to infectious diseases outbreaks
- Ensure compliance with safety and security matters under Occupational Health and Safety legislation and divisional safety and security policies, including workplace accommodations
