

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

About Us

MacEwan University is where caring faculty help people connect their passions to their future paths. Located in the heart of Edmonton's diverse and dynamic downtown community, and on the traditional lands of Treaty 6 First Nations and homelands of the Metis people, MacEwan is known for exceptional undergraduate learning. With its dedication to teaching excellence, informed by scholarly research, innovation, and creative activity, MacEwan provides an exceptional collaborative and supportive learning environment with a commitment to human rights, environmental sustainability, and opportunities for community engagement. We are committed to creating an equitable, diverse, inclusive, and welcoming community for all peoples, cultures, and identities.

Our comprehensive undergraduate university offers 55 programs to more than 19,000 full- and part-time students in business, communications, community and human services, design, fine and performing arts, health, humanities, natural science, nursing, public safety, and social science. Through a wide array of experiential learning opportunities, and strategic relationships in the community, we partner with others to produce graduates of stature. Along with a robust grounding in their chosen disciplines, MacEwan students are given durable life skills that prepare them to take on the world.

Opportunity

The Department of Anthropology, Economics, and Political Science in the Faculty of Arts and Science invites applications for a full-time tenure-track appointment in Anthropology, with expertise in Indigenous Studies, at the rank of Assistant Professor, commencing July 1st, 2025, subject to final budgetary approval.

You will have a combination of lived experiences grounded in Indigenous ways of knowing, being, and doing, and a graduate degree in Anthropology, Native/Indigenous Studies, Indigenous Language Revitalization, or a related field. You will demonstrate a primary commitment to undergraduate teaching and will develop and maintain a research program. In addition to teaching first and second-year anthropology courses in cultural or linguistic anthropology, you will be expected to teach ANTH 250: Introduction to Indigenous Peoples in Canada and ANTH 340: Indigeneity in Canada and will have the opportunity to develop a new suite of courses in their area of expertise.

You will have post-secondary teaching experience that provides evidence of excellence or clear promise of excellence in teaching both junior and senior undergraduate-level courses, and will demonstrate the ability to incorporate undergraduates into their research program.

You will submit a cover letter, curriculum vitae, teaching dossier (including recent teaching evaluations), and a statement of research interests.

Shortlisted candidates may also be asked to provide evidence of their history of community engagement through examples of previous collaboration, and/or letters of support from an Indigenous Community.

Only shortlisted candidates will be contacted by the Department Chair to provide three (3) letters of reference sent directly from referees.

Only selected candidates will be required to submit official transcripts sent directly from the institutions where you completed your degrees.

Questions about this opportunity may be addressed to Dr. Gaelan Murphy, Department Chair of Anthropology, Economics, and Political Science at murphyc@macewan.ca.

Closing Date: A review of applications will begin October 27, 2024 and continue until a suitable candidate is found.

This position is included under the Faculty Association collective agreement.
