

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

The One Drop Foundation doesn't just offer you a job; we invite you to be part of something extraordinary. We're looking for people who are not only motivated by their career aspirations, but also passionate about making a significant impact on the world.

Would you like to join a Foundation recognized for its mission and impact around the world Welcome to the ONE DROP Foundation!

The ONE DROP Foundation is looking for a Project Manager, Indigenous Water Allyship (IWA) Program to support the roll out of a joint endeavour-co-created by the Centre for Indigenous Environmental Resources (CIER), the One Drop Foundation, and their partners-that's geared towards First Nations, Metis, and Inuit Canadians. It's called the Indigenous Youth, Art, and Water Initiative, part of the Indigenous Water Allyship (IWA) Program.

If you care about the challenges facing First Nations, Metis and Inuit in Canada and have a deep understanding of Canada's history with First Nations, Metis, and Inuit peoples, including history and legacy of residential schools, UNDRIP, health outcomes related to drinking water, this is the position for you!

Why choose us

At One Drop, we unite people and empower communities to solve the water and climate crisis through innovative, sustainable actions. Channeling the creative spirit of Cirque du Soleil, we rally local and international changemakers to raise funds and co-create solutions that drive life-changing projects worldwide.

Together, since 2007, we have transformed the lives of nearly 3 million people in Latin America, India, Africa, and among Indigenous communities in Canada. Join us in turning water into action and creating a sustainable future with safe water for all. To learn more, visit our website onedrop.org

Our Team

Such an ambitious mission calls for extraordinary actions by exceptional people. Paving the way into uncharted and inspiring territory, our people seek to turn the challenges they face into opportunities. Are you one of these leaders Do your energy, passion, and determination motivate and inspire those around you Then come join our team of exceptional humans!

Main responsibilities

Reporting to the Director, Global Programs (Canada and Intl.), the Project Manager will be responsible for:

- Playing a strong leadership role in the co-development and co-design of the Indigenous Water Allyship Program
- In close collaboration with One Drop and CIER teams, overseeing and facilitating the implementation of the Indigenous Youth, Art, and Water Initiative while ensuring that targets are met within budget and on schedule
- Sourcing, establishing and stewarding strategic partnerships/relationships with Indigenous-led organizations/communities and leaders and collaborating with them on the co-development and co-design of the Indigenous Water Allyship Program, scaling from lessons learned and results from the Indigenous Youth, Art, and Water Initiatives
- Within the framework of the Indigenous Youth, Art, and Water Initiative, supporting academic partners of the One Drop Foundation and CIER in documenting results and learning goals

- Advising and following up with executing partners around project implementation plans, annual work plans, etc. for the Indigenous Water Allyship Program
- Supporting the team in analyzing the impact of the projects part of the Indigenous Water Allyship Program and implementing the measures required to meet project objectives
- Working with One Drop's finance team, carrying out budget management follow ups for projects in the Project Manager's portfolio, analyzing partner financial reports, and managing the payment schedule
- Contributing to the preparation and follow up of project committee meetings, as required
- Providing support to the corporate communications team in distributing content related to projects in the Project Manager's portfolio
- Ensuring that the One Drop Foundation's gender policy and other important policies-i.e., the foundation's forthcoming equity, diversity, and inclusion policy and climate strategy-are properly incorporated into and implemented across projects
- Other relevant tasks

We are looking for a person who shares our values

- Known for being entrepreneurial, bold, committed, creative, collaborative, curious, responsible, thorough, and results oriented
- Knack for harnessing group wisdom in a multi-partner, multi-cultural, and multi-disciplinary setting
- Demonstrated propensity for being an effective team member who actively contributes to meeting targets in a complex, fast-paced environment
- Gifted when it comes to organization, priority management, and multi-tasking
- Proactive, flexible, leadership-focused, and initiative-based attitude
- Fabulous interpersonal and intercultural skills that translate into cultivating excellent relationships with a wide variety of stakeholders

The One Drop Foundation is committed to ensuring a diverse and inclusive workplace that offers equal opportunities to all. We make every effort to attract and retain the best candidates, regardless of age, skin color, origin, religion, sex, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity or any other characteristic. It is based on the principle that everyone benefits from a welcoming and diverse workplace.
