

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Worker Type: Permanent Language(s) Required: English Salary Range (plus eligible to receive a performance based incentive, applicable to position): $103,331 - $139,803 Indigenous community engagement expertise and dedication to the path of reconciliation wanted

First Nations, Métis and Inuit have always been involved in agriculture and food and are uniquely positioned to reclaim their food sovereignty and grow successful businesses. FCC has lending, products and services to help Indigenous entrepreneurs, economic development corporations and government entities fully realize their goals.

As Manager of Indigenous Relations, you will lead in supporting and executing FCC's Indigenous Relations strategy, reconciliation action plan, external engagement plan, community investment, and sponsorships to advance Indigenous agriculture and food across Canada. What you do:

- Build key relationships to advance FCC's strategic objectives and support the refreshing and implementing of our Indigenous Relations strategy
- Develop strategic partnerships to help FCC advance the emerging Indigenous economy and increase Indigenous farmers' participation in establishing businesses and growing within the Canadian food value chain
- Integrate Indigenous perspectives and social impact into a unified strategy through research, writing and analysis

What we're looking for:

- Connector who can build and maintain relationships with Indigenous organizations and stakeholders across the ag and food sector to advance reconciliation
- Strategic thinker who can collaborate and translate observations into insights and forward-looking recommendations
- Multitasker who can manage multiple priorities and be resilient in new environments
- Leader driven to help others achieve success in their reconciliation journey
- Manager committed to advancing others' leadership skills using a "people first" approach

What you need:

- Bachelor's degree in the social sciences, business or commerce and at least six years of experience (or an equivalent combination of education and experience)
- Significant experience working with Indigenous government, businesses and communities
- Intuitive understanding of political factors, key issues, risks, and opportunities in the agriculture industry and Indigenous reconciliation landscape
- Strong background working with or for Indigenous social and economic development priorities
- Deep understanding of Indigenous experiences, Truth and Reconciliation Commission's Calls to Action and other related legislative and international instruments such as UNDRIP
- A love for agriculture and advancing Indigenous food security and financial sovereignty
