

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Collaborate with internal partners to promote Indigenous engagement and inclusion within FCC, enhancing internal processes and systems to deliver on the Indigenous Relations strategy and Indigenous Reconciliation Action Plan.

Youâ€™ll support internal initiatives that will improve how FCC expands to support Indigenous Peoples and communities in the agriculture and food space. Plus, youâ€™ll conduct research and analysis, providing recommendations to develop and improve our internal programs.

What youâ€™ll do:

- Collaborate with internal partners to execute on internal Indigenous Relations plans
- Support projects and programs that attract and retain Indigenous talent and enhance employeesâ€™ Indigenous knowledge
- Find opportunities and make recommendations to improve our Indigenous Relations strategy and processes
- Collaborate with Brand and Marketing on Indigenous creative projects and collateral
- Conduct research on organizations that are leaders in Indigenous Relations and recommend how FCC can adapt our internal programs
- Support reporting and analytics requirements, including assisting with integrated reporting and providing insights to key stakeholders

What weâ€™re looking for:

- Collaborative team player who supports business areas with a one-team approach
- Creative thinker with the ability to provide solutions and find opportunities
- Organizational pro with excellent time management skills and the ability to manage multiple priorities
- Relationship-builder passionate about helping others achieve their goals
- Excellent communicator with impeccable interpersonal, presentation, written and verbal communication skills
- Analytical mindset with the ability to synthesize research findings into actionable insights

What youâ€™ll need:

- A bachelorâ€™s degree in social sciences, business or commerce and four to six years of experience (or an equivalent combination of education and experience)
- Experience working with and for Indigenous social and economic development priorities
- Deep knowledge of Indigenous community structures and the history and current challenges facing Indigenous agriculture
- A passion for advancing Indigenous food security and financial sovereignty
