

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

NCFST is committed to staffing a workforce representative of the Aboriginal population we serve. We encourage First Nations, Métis and Inuit applicants to apply and to self-identify in their cover letter.

Position Summary

Under the direction of the Supervisor, Early Years, the Assistant Early Childhood Educator will:

- Assist with developing and implementing appropriate early learning programs for children ranging from 0 to 6 years of age.
- Follow an emergent curriculum, incorporating ELECT and Aboriginal framework.
- Assist with delivering early learning services to parents and children, such as literacy and interactive learning activities to help ensure that children are ready to learn and to make it easier for them to transition to school.
- Assist with planning, developing and implementing programs that contain stimulating activities for preschool and kindergarten children, including field trips.
- Promote the physical, social, emotional and intellectual well-being of children in all activities.
- Maintain accurate reporting, statistical data and documentation of children's development and interactions.
- Support children with their daily routines.
- Provide staffing relief at mid-day to maintain staffing levels and quality care.

- Maintain active communication with colleagues and parents.
- Build positive relationships with children, families and fellow staff members.
- Assist with classroom housekeeping.
- Complete general administrative tasks, such as playground inspections and health reports.
- Ensure that the legislated health and safety standards are maintained at all times.
- Be available for location reassignment to any of the NCFST Early Years sites.

Qualifications

- A Diploma or Degree in Early Childhood Education is preferred.
- A current Vulnerable Sector Screening Police Reference Check and a willingness to obtain a new one upon hire.
- Up to date immunizations.
- Current Infant/Child CPR and Standard First Aid Certificate.
- Knowledge of the unique dynamics that exist within the First Nations, Inuit, and Métis cultures.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills, organizational skills and respect for confidentiality.
- Demonstrated understanding, and commitment to, integrating the Native Child and Family Services of Toronto Mission and values in to practice, service and relationships.
- Demonstrated understanding of workplace health and safety practices and understanding of an employee's responsibility under current legislation.
- Ability to work effectively, with all levels of staff, to maintain effective communication and working relationships, demonstrating strong interpersonal skills, tact, sensitivity and ability to build strong internal relationships.
