

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Aboriginal Legal Services is seeking an Executive Director to lead the organization towards continued growth while embodying their mission, vision, and values.

Aboriginal Legal Services was established February 21, 1990. ALS was formed following a needs assessment by the Native Canadian Centre of Toronto. With approximately 75 dedicated employees, Aboriginal Legal Services is headquartered out of 211 Yonge St and operates nearly a dozen satellite offices across Ontario. Over the years ALS has become a nationally-recognized leader in the development of Indigenous-led justice programming and in test-case litigation.

As the Executive Director, you will develop an overarching strategic and operational plan in collaboration with the Senior Management Team and Board of Directors to meet the organization's strategic objectives. This will include: organization branding, fundraising, labour relations, stakeholder-management, partnership development, risk management, financial management and oversight, etc.

Reporting to the Board via the Board President, you will develop a strong partnership with the Board of Directors and liaise with Board-level committee chairs to ensure strong continuous communication and accountability on strategic issues and projects. This will include implementing and testing best-practices in non-profit governance.

You will maintain human resources oversight, including: the development of the organization's team, talent acquisition and succession planning; collective bargaining the organization's first collective agreement; and ensure HR and Health and Safety compliance.

You will also work with the finance department to maintain the financial health of the organization by ensuring sound financial management practices, including budgeting, forecasting, cashflow, and reporting.

Experience

• Strong HR competencies, including experience as a Senior Leader in a Unionized environment

• Knowledge of human resources principles and regulations, with a commitment to maintaining a healthy and safe work environment in accordance with all legislation and regulations

• Working knowledge of federal and provincial legislation applicable to not-for-profit sector organizations, including: employment standards, human rights, occupational health and safety, charities etc.

• Strong understanding of Canadian Indigenous issues and challenges, specifically how they relate to various touchpoints in the Canadian justice system

• Demonstrated financial acumen and experience being accountable for the financial stability of an organization

• Proven leadership skills within the not-for-profit sector with a demonstrated ability to inspire, motivate and mentor others in pursuit of identified vision, mission, and goals in a complex, multiprogram organization and environment.

• Prior experience either reporting to or participating in a governance board, with a strong respect for and appreciation of governance functions.

Education Requirements

Bachelor's degree in a relevant field
