

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Are you an experienced advocate interested in working for a progressive health care union with a large and diverse membership, and a broad social justice mandate

The Hospital Employees' Union is looking for a skilled individual to fill the regular full-time position of WCB and LTD Representative at its provincial office in Burnaby, British Columbia. The Representatives specialize in providing advocacy services for injured HEU members and those living with long-term disabilities.

Our work is diverse and challenging. The position is responsible for representing HEU members before administrative tribunals, providing advice and training to staff, and support to legislative and policy reform initiatives. The position reports to the Team Lead, Worker's Compensation and LTD.

Requirements

- Specific and detailed knowledge of the Worker's Compensation Act, Regulations, long-term disability procedures, and other labour legislation and policies that may affect workers' benefits, health, and safety.
- Experience in representing workers at hearings and tribunals.
- Effective and respectful communication skills (written, oral, and listening).
- Demonstrated ability to communicate effectively with and for workers who may be under severe stress, in pain, or living with temporary or permanent disabilities.
- Ability to facilitate educational topics on issues relating to WCB and LTD.
- A demonstrated commitment to social and economic justice.
- Excellent case research and analytical skills.
- A demonstrated ability to manage competing demands and provide high-quality work under tight deadlines.

This is a unionized position. Compensation is based on a collective agreement and includes a 72-hour fortnight and generous vacation time and benefits, including a defined benefit pension plan. The current annual salary for this position is $107,677.44. A valid BC driver's license and access to a vehicle are required, as is the ability to travel throughout the province.

About HEU

Since 1944, the Hospital Employees' Union has advocated for better working and caring conditions, defended public health care, and stood against privatization.

We have a long history as a strong, democratic, progressive, socially conscious union committed to social justice and advancing labour and human rights on a local and global level. We identify and challenge historical and systemic inequities and hear, respect, serve, empower, and advocate for, each and every member. Together we fight for fairness, solidarity, equity, inclusion, and understanding, knowing that our members' economic security depends on our success.

HEU is an equal opportunity employer. We are committed to being a workplace that is free of discrimination, values diversity, and is representative of the communities we serve.
