

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Ministry of Children and Family Development : Surrey, Langley, Delta

Child and Youth Mental Health Support Worker

Apply your expertise in a vital role where you can make a positive difference for children and families in British Columbia

The Child and Youth Mental Health Support Worker provides a range of mental health services to children, youth and families such as counselling support and education, contact with community agencies, and development of early intervention programs. This role also assists families and other relevant caregivers in methods of coping and management in relation to their child's mental health condition, including parenting groups, stress management, problem solving, conflict resolution, effective communication, social skill enhancement, and other systems of care.

The BC Public Service is committed to creating a diverse workplace to represent the population we serve and to better meet the needs of our citizens. Consider joining our team and being part of an innovative, inclusive and rewarding workplace.

The Indigenous Applicant Advisory Service is available to applicants that self-identify as Indigenous (First Nations, status or non-status, Metis, or Inuit) seeking work or already employed in the BC Public Service. For advice and guidance on applying and/or preparing for an interview for this opportunity, we invite applicants to connect with the Indigenous Applicant Advisor Amanda by email: IndigenousApplicants@gov.bc.ca or by phone: 778-698-1336.

Qualifications for this role include:

- Bachelor's Degree in Social Work, Psychology or Child and Youth Care, or equivalent.
- Experience working in child and youth mental health services.
- Exposure to regular travel in remote locations.
- May be required to use own vehicle on an expense account basis.
- Will be subject to satisfactory reference check and criminal records review and policy record checks.
- Preference may be given for those candidates currently in Master's Program of Social Work, Psychology or Child and Youth Care, or equivalent.
