

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Our client, Aboriginal Legal Services is seeking an Executive Director to lead the organization towards continued growth while embodying their mission, vision, and values.

Reporting to the Board of Directors, the Executive Director is responsible for overseeing all operations of the organization. You will manage the program directors and managers in all departments including finance, legal advocacy, legal clinic, community council, Giiwedini Anang, and Gladue. You will be instrumental in sustaining the development and growth of the organization; maintaining a high quality of service; and ensuring it remains a leader in the delivery of justice services across Ontario and the country.

The Executive Director provides strategic advice to the organization and ensures accountability from staff and Board, acting as an ethical role model throughout while ensuring equitable treatment for Indigenous people within the justice system.

Responsibilities:

- Coordinate and facilitate the Board of Directors meetings; participating in discussions and providing reports for the Board's review.
- Oversee the budget and financials with the accountant and Board on a monthly basis; ensuring a strong financial position
- Conduct strategic planning initiatives taking on the writing of the plan, ensuring Board and senior management participation
- Establish long-term funding goals for the organization; developing strategies to obtain essential funds including necessary fundraisers or sponsorships from stakeholders.
- Develop and implement innovative marketing strategies and other public relations tactics for organizational growth; researching and identifying new initiatives that align with the organization's vision and react to changing market trends continuously building awareness.
- Improve and maintain necessary technology; ensuring full optimization and operations of the websites, developing new ideas.
- Build strong government relations through meetings with senior government officials and Ministers.
- Network across Canada with similar legal services organizations and Indigenous communities to share information, spread awareness of the organization, etc.
- Ensure sufficient staff and volunteers relative to the current needs
