

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

The YMCA Academy invites applications for the position of Head of School.

The YMCA Academy is a co-educational school with 110 students enrolled in grades 6 to 12. A community-based school located in the downtown Toronto Central YMCA, the Academy serves students with exceptionalities and different ways of learning. The curriculum is taught in a structured and supportive environment where neurodiverse learners receive individual attention, classes are small and intimate, and the relationship between teachers and students is strong.

The Head of School is accountable to the Vice-President/General Manager of the Central YMCA and has overall responsibility for the academic and administrative leadership of the School. The new Head will be a respected educational leader with the ability to provide inspiration, support, and leadership to the entire community. They will have significant administrative experience earned in a school environment and a knowledge of, and passion for, neurodiversity and the many ways in which young people learn. Above all, the new Head will be a person of character and strong values, endowed with the warmth and authenticity that allows them to connect with students and staff.

Please submit a cover letter and resume to <https://careers.odgersberndtson.com/en-ca/28667> by September 15, 2023. Consideration of candidates will commence immediately, with the Head to take office, ideally, in January 2024. The YMCA Academy has partnered with the leadership advisory firm Odgers Berndtson for this recruitment. If you have questions or would like more information, please write to Julia Robarts at ymcaacademy@odgersberndtson.com. Please note that the Head of School is a permanent position and includes a competitive salary, a wide range of benefits, and membership in a defined contribution pension plan.
