

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Operations Managers – BC Timber Sales

Consider being part of a skilled team dedicated to effective forest resource management, collaborative stakeholder relations, and strategic operational plans

Salary $73,400.00 - $101,900.00 annually

There are 3 Operations Manager career opportunities available in Mackenzie, Prince George, Vernon and Williams Lake BC Timber Sales (BCTS) plans, develops, and sells through auction, a substantial and representative portion of the Province's annual available timber volume. The bid prices received from auctioned timber support the Market Pricing System (MPS) in setting stumpage rates for coastal and interior operating areas of the province. The goal of BCTS is to provide credible representative price and cost benchmark data for the MPS through auctions of public timber. Operations Managers manage, plan and organize the operational delivery of ministry programs, services and local initiatives. As a member of the Business Area management team, the Operations Manager provides overall leadership and management of forest resource planning, First Nation and stakeholder relations, data stewardship, and environmental and safety certification components of the business. The Operations Manager has considerable independence and autonomy within a collaborative environment, leading a diverse, high performing team comprised of technical, administrative and professional staff. If you are service and team oriented, eager to work in a variety of challenging roles and willing to play a key role in shaping vital natural resources for future British Columbians, then this is the position for you!

Qualifications for this role include:

• Degree or diploma in resource management, public administration, aboriginal studies or equivalent and five years (gained within the last seven years) of related experience.

• Experience in program administration including allocating resources, leading and coaching diverse teams, supervising staff and in strategic business planning, procurement and financial management.

• Experience developing and maintaining working relationships with stakeholders in natural resource management or infrastructure development.

• Experience with resolving problems through negotiation with stakeholders.
