

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

For 50 years, Thompson Rivers University (TRU) has taken pride in providing an excellent education to students with a variety of backgrounds and perspectives who are at various stages of their learning journey. TRU is a comprehensive, learner-centred, environmentally responsible institution that serves its regional, national, and international learners and their communities through high quality and flexible education, training, research and scholarship. From traditional academics to trades, from certificates to graduate degrees, TRU offers students a choice from over 140 on-campus programs and 60 Open Learning programs. More than 30,400 students study on campuses in Kamloops, Williams Lake and regional centres throughout the Interior, or through Open Learning in distance or online courses and programs. Research, creation and innovation thrive in TRU's open, flexible learning environment.

Reporting to the Provost and Vice-President Academic and Research (Provost), the Associate Vice-President Academic is a key member of the Senior Academic Leadership team. The AVP Academic provides leadership in the Office of Quality Assurance with a focus on the continuous quality improvement, maintenance and promotion of academic programming. The AVP Academic collaborates with Faculties and Schools to ensure the academic integrity and quality of TRU's educational offerings. The AVP Academic leads and facilitates the development of excellence in learning and teaching, accreditation and program review and, where appropriate, acts as the designate on behalf of the Provost.

The successful candidate will be an authentic, inspirational and effective leader with a strong academic background and demonstrable administrative experience in a university environment. The candidate must thrive in a collegial culture with a leadership style characterized by the core values of inclusivity, consultation and transparency. The AVP Academic will have the ability to foster an atmosphere that models and promotes the highest standards of ethical behaviour and will have a thorough understanding of the academic environment. The successful candidate will have excellent communication skills, extensive experience leading quality assurance curriculum development and renewal within a context of collaboration and collegial governance. An earned doctoral degree is required as well as eligibility for appointment as a tenured faculty member at TRU.

Thompson Rivers University is strongly committed to fostering diversity within our community. We welcome those who would contribute to the further diversification of our staff, our faculty and its scholarship including, but not limited to, women, visible minorities, Indigenous people, persons with disabilities and persons of any sexual orientation or gender identity. Please note that all qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, applications from Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.
