

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

BEHAVIOURAL SCIENCES TENURE TRACK FACULTY POSITION

We seek candidates qualified to teach foundational, undergraduate courses in sociology and upper level courses in their area of specialization and to play a key role in future programmatic development at Booth University College. Competencies in an area such as sociology in urban contexts and experience with interdisciplinary departments would be considered assets. Applicants should have a PhD in Sociology or related field and preferably have a minimum of 5 years of experience at a post-secondary institution. In concert with teaching, applicants would be expected to contribute to the development of interdisciplinary degree programs and establish a modest research program involving undergraduate students. The successful applicant must have an active Christian faith and commitment to the integration of faith and learning in a Christian university-level setting. The anticipated starting date for this full-time, tenure-track position is July 2019.

Education Requirements

PhD in Sociology or related field

Other

Booth University College is an undergraduate Christian institution centrally located in Winnipeg, Manitoba. Booth University College is rooted in The Salvation Army's history of meeting the needs of the most vulnerable in society and is committed to "Education for a Better World" as described in our mission statement:

William and Catherine Booth University College, rooted in The Salvation Army's Wesleyan theological tradition, brings together Christian faith, rigorous scholarship and a passion for service. The University College educates students to understand the complexities of our world, to develop the knowledge and skills necessary to be active contributors to society, and to know how Christian faith compels them to bring hope, social justice and mercy into our world.

How to Apply

Application materials should include: curriculum vitae, statement of teaching philosophy and professional engagement, statement on how your faith commitment would contribute to both teaching and scholarship at Booth University College, names and contact information for three references and evidence of effective teaching (if available).

Applications and inquiries may be submitted in confidence to Human Resources Department, attention Marilyn Coupland, at boothuc_careers@boothuc.ca All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however in accordance with Canadian Immigration requirements, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Applications will be reviewed as received, until the position is filled.
