

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Associate Deputy Minister, Health System Operations

Ministry of Health

Victoria, BC

The Ministry of Health (the Ministry) has overall responsibility for ensuring that quality, appropriate, cost-effective, and timely health services are available for all British Columbians. The province's health authorities are the organizations primarily responsible for health service delivery. Five regional health authorities deliver a full continuum of health services to meet the needs of the population within their respective geographic regions. A sixth health authority, the Provincial Health Services Authority (PHSA), is responsible for provincial clinical policy, the delivery of provincial clinical services, provincial commercial services, and provincial digital and information management and information technology operational planning and services. The Ministry also works in partnership with the First Nations Health Authority (FNHA) to support the health and wellness of First Nations people in British Columbia (BC). The FNHA is responsible for planning, management, service delivery and funding of health programs, in partnership with First Nations communities in BC. The Ministry also works with Metis Nation BC and the BC Association of Aboriginal Friendship Centres to support the health and wellness of Metis and urban Indigenous peoples in the province. The Associate Deputy Minister Health System Operations partners with and supports the Deputy Minister of Health by leading corporate initiatives for the ministry and acts as a trusted advisor to the deputy minister and the ministry executive team.

This role will support executive colleagues and the ministry by maintaining a strong health system operations infrastructure. This includes ensuring financial administration, management and control, governance, organizational structure, strategic planning, resource planning as well as the utilization of information technology systems and information management.

The successful candidate has significant recent experience at a senior executive level in leading the development and implementation of strategies in support of health system operations in a large complex organization. They have exceptional communication skills, the ability to effectively manage a diverse portfolio of multiple stakeholders with competing priorities, and a proven track record in leading and mentoring people and teams. In addition to the experience required, the ideal candidate will have a related post-secondary degree or an equivalent combination of education and experience.

The appointee will be required to consent to a criminal record check. For more information, please visit www.gov.bc.ca/executiveopportunities.

The BC Public Service is committed to creating a diverse workplace to reflect the population we serve and to better meet the needs of our citizens. Consider joining our executive team and being part of an innovative, inclusive, and rewarding organization.
