

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

What Are We About:

Fleming is located in the heart of the Kawartha Lakes Region in Central Ontario—a beautiful place to live and work, surrounded by natural beauty and a mere 90 minutes north-east of Toronto. The College's 6,800 full-time and 10,000 part-time students, including hundreds of international students from countries around the world, attend at campus locations in Peterborough, Lindsay, Haliburton and Cobourg. Fleming offers more than 100 full-time programs in Environmental and Natural Resource Sciences, Fine Arts, General Arts and Science, Technology, Skilled Trades, Community Development, Health, Business, and Justice as well as other Continuing Education courses.

We are also extremely proud of our more than 73,000 Fleming alumni who are contributing to their communities in the region, across the province and around the world.

What This Position is About:

The Employee Learning & Development (EL&D) Specialist is responsible for the delivery of organizational development initiatives, professional learning programs and high skills training opportunities, ensuring a strong alignment with the College strategic plan and business objectives. Working with a variety of internal stakeholders from across the College, the incumbent will develop an understanding of organizational needs and will effectively design, deliver and evaluate professional learning initiatives in support of the College's journey toward a responsive organizational culture that reflects innovation, collaboration, inclusiveness and accountability. The EL&D Specialist will directly facilitate professional learning sessions as well as work to source and secure external facilitators, where appropriate. With a strong understanding of industry standards, emerging trends and related best practices, the incumbent will work collaboratively with the Director, Employee Success & Organizational Development to review and enhance the corporate onboarding program for new hires as part of the broader talent acquisition strategy. In addition, the EL&D Specialist administers professional development leave procedures (sabbatical leaves) and tuition advance/tuition rebate processes in accordance with College policies.
