

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Link's Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Work at CBC/Radio-Canada

At CBC/Radio-Canada, we create content that informs, entertains and connects Canadians on multiple platforms. Our successes and accomplishments are driven by embodying and upholding values, which include creativity, integrity, inclusiveness and relevance.

Do you think you have the ability and drive to keep up with this exciting, ever-changing industry? Whether it be in front of the camera, on air, online or behind the scenes, you would be joining a team that thrives on making connections and telling stories that are important to Canadians.

Your role

You demonstrate and maintain exceptional skill in writing, you build multimedia-rich story packages. You are often the last set of eyes on our story and you have a strong sense of CBC's journalistic standards and practices as well as legal issues that might arise in news.

You want to work as part of a team to provide the best content for Prince Edward Island. You devour the news and are excited about the possibilities digital offers. You love the craft of writing and feel privileged to tell people's stories. Work can involve the coordination of the activities of others and close co-operation with the program unit is essential.

Experience

A minimum of three years of relevant experience including proven ability in the field and knowledge of the digital or print industry.

Education Requirements

A university degree or equivalent

Essential Skills

Knowledge of the challenges and aspirations of the diverse cultural, ethnic and language communities of our province and region.

Understanding of segmenting stories (aka "elementing") as well as writing with voice and personality is required.

An understanding of image selection and cropping is required.

Advanced knowledge of web, mobile and social media tools and industry trends.

Excellent communication skills.

Advice and guidance are available but initiative and independent judgment are expected.

Ability to work a variety of shifts including early starts, late finishes and weekends.
