

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Ministry of Attorney General: Vancouver

On behalf of the Attorney General, lawyers in the Legal Services Branch discharge the duties and functions assigned to the Attorney General under the Attorney General Act. Legal Counsel 3 in the Litigation Group represent the Attorney General, the Province and other government associated persons and entities in all levels of court and before administrative tribunals in diverse areas of civil litigation including constitutional law, class actions, administrative law, personal injury law, law enforcement and corrections law, and environment and land law. They have an in-depth understanding of, among other enactments, the applicable rules of court, the Crown Proceeding Act, Attorney General Act, Judicial Review Procedure Act, in addition to the Constitution Act, 1867 and the Charter of Rights and Freedoms. Legal Counsel 3 are expected to negotiate and recommend settlements where appropriate and provide litigation-related advice in every area of government practice.

As a Legal Counsel 3, your broad range of professional skills will enable you to give advice in areas of law outside the dimensions of your regularly assigned legal responsibilities. You will be dealing with matters that can involve large sums of public funds and/or be of importance to the public interest. You will be expected to advise on current developments in the law which may affect areas of concern to government. Assisting with developing and recommending alternatives and initiating changes in these areas of the law will also be required in this role.

The BC Public Service is committed to creating a diverse workplace represent the population we serve and to better meet the needs of our citizens. Consider joining our team and being part of an innovative, inclusive, and rewarding workplace.

Qualifications for this role include:

- Must be a member in good standing, or immediately eligible to become a member, of the Law Society of British Columbia;
- Twelve or more years of call to the bar in a Canadian jurisdiction;
- Experience in the conduct of civil litigation at the Supreme Court of British Columbia and/or the British Columbia Court of Appeal; AND
- Significant experience with the law of evidence.
