

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

The Gordon Foundation is a philanthropic foundation. The programs we manage and support reflect our commitment to the development of progressive, mutually-reinforcing social and environmental policies for all Canadians.

The Role

We are searching for a highly motivated, strategic, creative, and flexible Program Content Coordinator - Treaties.

This role will focus mainly on the Understanding Our Treaties initiative (please also see understandingtreaties.ca), developing educational content about historic and modern treaties in Canada, and working with the team on the day-to-day operations.

This exciting role also includes supporting other initiatives in the North program: the Jane Glassco Northern Fellowship and the Northern Policy Hackathon, through a broad range of responsibilities such as writing reports and publications, organizing events, and engaging with stakeholders.

The successful candidate will require an ability to adapt to change and work through early-stage project ideas, as well as engage with diverse groups from across Canada.

The salary range is $50,000 to $80,000 per year with a competitive benefits package.

This is a one-year contract with the possibility to become a full-time position.

The Gordon Foundation has Toronto-based staff and remote staff based across Canada. Toronto staff are currently working from home due to public health guidelines. We hope to transition back to a hybrid model working in our downtown Toronto office in 2022.

Key Areas of Responsibility

- Creating compelling and informative content for the understandingtreaties.ca website, including scripts for new videos and copy for new webpages.
- Developing customized treaty negotiation and implementation exercises and background materials for Treaty Simulation events in partnership with a variety of groups.
- Conducting in-depth research to identify and recommend new content to address gaps in current content.
- Collaborating with the team and program partners to identify key thematic areas, goals and target audiences for new content.

- Conducting in-depth research for new content development.
- Updating existing content on a regular basis to ensure consistency and accuracy.
- Researching new partnership opportunities for the Understanding Our Treaties initiative.
- Working with the team to organize and facilitate events and meetings with community members, government, organizations, political leaders and others.
- Assisting with writing social media content, reports, articles, funding proposals and presentations.
- Support activities throughout the organization when required.

Qualifications and Experience

- Excellent research, writing and editing skills with adherence to professional style guides.
- Experience developing content and materials for educational or informational purposes.
- Experience working with Indigenous communities.
- Self-motivated and able to work with colleagues located remotely.
- Strong coordination, organization, and planning.
- Ability to manage multiple projects and shifting priorities within tight timelines.
- Strong communication, presentation and interpersonal skills.
- Ability to travel and work extended hours, as needed.
- Post-secondary degree in a relevant field or the equivalent work/lived experience.

How to Apply

Please forward your resume and cover letter to info@gordonfn.org with Program Content Coordinator in the subject line. Only candidates invited for an interview will be contacted. Your resume and cover letter must be received by 7 February, 2022.
