

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

The University of Winnipeg Foundation (the Foundation) is a registered and incorporated charitable public foundation dedicated to fundraising and asset stewardship in support of the University of Winnipeg's mission and vision. The Foundation supports the strategic priorities and values of the University of Winnipeg, contributing to shared goals by building a strong base of endowment funds. Its strategic intent is to substantially increase the value of charitable gifts in support of the University's strategic directions: academic excellence and renewal; student experience and success; Indigenization; research excellence, knowledge mobilization and impact; and financial and institutional resilience.

The University of Winnipeg is a dynamic campus and a downtown hub that connects people from diverse cultures and nurtures global citizens. It offers high-quality undergraduate and graduate programs including several that are unique in Western Canada, for example, a Bachelor of Arts in Human Rights, and a Master's degree in Development Practice with a focus on Indigenous Development. The University's graduates value their educational experience, and UWinnipeg consistently ranks highly in national surveys for overall reputation, small class sizes, academic excellence and commitment to the environment.

Reporting to the Board of Directors of the University of Winnipeg Foundation, and working closely with the University's President and the Senior Leadership Team, the Chief Executive Officer of the Foundation is a key member of, and contributor to, UWinnipeg's financial generation and sustainability. The Chief Executive Officer's mandate is to ensure strong, robust philanthropic support for the University of Winnipeg. The Chief Executive Officer will do this through building and maintaining positive, collaborative and collegial relationships across the university campus and externally with alumni, donors, and community stakeholders and partners. The Chief Executive Officer will be responsible for ensuring and supporting a culture of excellence and professionalism in the Foundation, mentoring and providing growth opportunities for the team, and creating measurable objectives to support fundraising.

The ideal candidate is a strategic and successful fundraising leader who provides strong leadership through the implementation of best practices and who creates a culture that is supportive of equity, diversity and inclusion. The ideal candidate must have successful experience at both raising significant philanthropic donations through either professional or voluntary experience, and with collaborating and supporting academics and researchers. Strong financial management skills including of investment policies, governance and fiduciary matters, outstanding attributes as a people manager, an ability to build strong partnerships with both internal and external stakeholders, and an ease communicating with groups of varying size and sophistication are also required. Knowledge of decentralized staffing models, experience with all aspects of fundraising from stewardship through solicitation, management of high-level volunteer recruitment and strategic alumni engagement activities are all considered strong assets.
