

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Work at CBC/Radio-Canada

At CBC/Radio-Canada, we create content that informs, entertains and connects Canadians on multiple platforms. Our successes and accomplishments are driven by embodying and upholding values, which include creativity, integrity, inclusiveness and relevance.

Do you think you have the ability and drive to keep up with this exciting, ever-changing industry? Whether it be in front of the camera, on air, online or behind the scenes, you would be joining a team that thrives on making connections and telling stories that are important to Canadians.

Your role

CBC Nova Scotia is seeking a Senior Producer to lead a team of journalists at our Cape Breton station and coordinate special programming initiatives throughout the province. You are part of the Nova Scotia leadership group that oversees the creation of editorial content on all of our media platforms. Reporting to the Executive Producer, you will actively participate in the news agenda and ensure the quick and accurate delivery of breaking news in Cape Breton.

You have fresh ideas and technical expertise to create the quality programming Canadians have come to expect from us. You are someone who is always ready to explore new ways of creating content that is as distinctive, intelligent and innovative as the audiences we serve.

As Senior Producer, you will champion new voices and new perspectives, ensuring CBC Nova-Scotia reflects the diversity of our entire community.

You will develop our journalists with training, feedback and development plans. You will be part of the hiring process for the Cape Breton newsroom.

As a people leader, you help with any disputes, onboarding new staff and look for opportunities for growth for the team in the Cape Breton newsroom.

As assigned by the Executive Producer, you will also help coordinate special local, provincial and regional journalistic programming that requires a high degree of organization and editorial oversight.

You will help grow our audience and position CBC as a vibrant and relevant service valued by the people of Cape Breton.

Education Requirements

University degree with five years of relevant experience preferred.

Essential Skills

Who you are and what you bring:

A people leader: you motivate your team with excellent communication and interpersonal skills.

A mentor: you understand inclusion and diversity and the meaning of belonging.

A strong journalist: excellent news judgment, critical thinking and judgment skills, vetting experience.

A creative storyteller: you understand the issues in Cape Breton and see the potential to share those stories with all Canadians.

A lifelong learner: advanced knowledge of broadcast, web, mobile and social media tools and industry trends.

Strong sense of self awareness and presence.

Unwavering focus on the needs of the audience and how to meet them.

A strong collaborator: you understand how to lead and work with teams virtually.

Candidates may be subject to skills and knowledge testing.
