

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Join our team in Rehabilitation Science at McMaster University! The School of Rehabilitation Science is in the Faculty of Health Sciences, characterized by interdisciplinary, inter-professional, and inter-institutional cooperation with overall goals of excellence in education, research and clinical service. McMaster's School of Rehabilitation Science is acclaimed nationally and internationally for its educational programs and leadership in clinical research and evidence-based practice. The School has professional Masters-level programs in Occupational Therapy, Physiotherapy and Speech-Language Pathology as well as research graduate programs (MSc and PhD) and a Master of Health Management Program in partnership with the DeGroote School of Business. Full-time Contractually Limited Position in Physiotherapy The School of Rehabilitation Sciences, McMaster University, invites applications for a full-time contractually limited position which will support the School of Rehabilitation Science entry-level physiotherapy professional programs. A minimum of a post-graduate Masters in a related field or a combination of equivalent professional experiences and education is required. Candidates must have the ability to teach physiotherapy clinical skills and knowledge, be in good standing with the College of Physiotherapists of Ontario (CPO) or eligible for CPO registration. The preferred candidate will have demonstrated excellence in teaching in entry to practice physiotherapy programs, specifically in the field of orthopaedics, as well as the ability to instruct practice management and business concepts. The candidate will also be proficient with integrating technology into teaching and learning, as well as experience in curriculum and resource development. Previous experience with pedagogical research, as well as teaching in a problem-based, self-directed curriculum would be an asset. Applicants should submit letters of application, including a description of teaching and research experiences and interests, accompanied by a curriculum vitae and the names of three referees. Materials should be submitted online. Review of applications will begin on March 31, 2021 and will continue until the position is filled.

All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be considered first for this position. To comply with the Government of Canada's reporting requirements, the University is obliged to gather information about applicants' status as either Permanent Residents of Canada or Canadian citizens. Applicants need not identify their country of origin or current citizenship; however, all applications must include one of the following statements: "Yes, I am a citizen or permanent resident of Canada" or "No, I am not a citizen or permanent resident of Canada". McMaster University is located on the traditional territories of the Haudenosaunee and Mississauga Nations and, within the lands protected by the "Dish with One Spoon" wampum agreement. Commitment to Inclusive Excellence The diversity of our workforce is at the core of our innovation and creativity and strengthens our research and teaching excellence. In keeping with its Statement on Building an Inclusive Community with a Shared Purpose, McMaster University strives to embody the values of respect, collaboration and diversity, and has a strong commitment to employment equity. The University seeks qualified candidates who share our commitment to equity and inclusion, who will contribute to the diversification of ideas and perspectives, and especially welcomes applications from First Nations, Metis and Inuit peoples, members of racialized communities ("visible minorities"), persons with disabilities, women, persons who identify as 2SLGBTQ+. We invite all applicants to complete a brief Diversity Survey, which takes approximately two minutes to complete, through McMaster's application submission portal. All questions are voluntary, with an option to decline to answer. All information collected is confidential and will be used to support efforts to broaden the diversity of the applicant pool and to promote a fair, equitable and inclusive talent acquisition process. Please refer to the Applicant Diversity Survey -

Statement of Collection for additional information. Job applicants requiring accommodation to participate in the hiring process should contact:

- Human Resources Service Centre at 905-525-9140 ext. 222-HR (22247), or
- Faculty of Health Sciences HR Office at ext. 22207, or
- School of Graduate Studies at ext. 23679

to communicate accommodation needs. Along with your application requirements (CV, References etc.), please also submit the following:

- Statement describing how the candidate will advance the university's commitment to equity, inclusivity and accessibility and to fostering a culture which embraces and promotes the rich diversity of the campus community (up to 2 pages)
