

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Contact us to find out more about how to become a Site Sponsor.

Corporate Headquarters:

Toll Free Phone: (866) 225-9067

Toll Free Fax: (877) 825-7564

L9 P23 R4074 HWY 596 - Box 109

Keewatin, ON P0X 1C0

Job Board Posting

Careers.Indigenous.Link

Date Printed: 2024/04/30

Junior Web Application Developer - Library

Job ID	372379-1-8175
Web Address	https://careers.indigenous.link/viewjob?jobname=372379-1-8175
Company	Toronto Metropolitan University
Location	Toronto, ON
Date Posted	From: 2023-03-25	To: 2050-01-01
Job	Type: Full-time	Category: Education

Description

About Toronto Metropolitan

At the intersection of mind and action, Toronto Metropolitan University is on a transformative path to become Canada's leading comprehensive innovation university. Integral to this path is the placement of equity, diversity and inclusion as fundamental to our institutional culture. Our current academic plan outlines each as core values and we work to embed them in all that we do. We welcome those who have demonstrated a commitment to upholding the values of equity, diversity, and inclusion and will assist us to expand our capacity for diversity in the broadest sense. In addition, to correct the conditions of disadvantage in employment in Canada, we encourage applications from members of groups that have been historically disadvantaged and marginalized, including First Nations, Metis and Inuit peoples, Indigenous peoples of North America, racialized persons, persons with disabilities, and those who identify as women and/or 2SLGBTQ+. Please note that all qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, applications from Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. In April 2022, the university announced our new name of Toronto Metropolitan University, which will be implemented in a phased approach. Learn more about our next chapter.

About the team A vibrant and innovative centre of exploration, research, creation and learning, the University Library is positioned at the core of the University's academic, research and community engagement goals. The Library supports a diverse community of learners and instructors, researchers and scholars, and community experts and entrepreneurs, and is a hub of interdisciplinary SRC. The dedicated team of more than 100 talented individuals supports a growing academic community, including new campuses and a growing number of international students. The University Library provides crucial academic learning, creation and research resources, programs, services and spaces. Its unique blend of expertise and programming, coupled with access to leading edge technology and an array of information resources, fosters a rich academic environment, supporting the University's complement of degree programs, and advancing research and discovery, and community outreach and engagement. The Library is committed to the TRC Calls to Action and is actively exploring ways to decolonize our work and these efforts are further supported by the Mash Koh Wee Kah Pooh Win (Standing Strong Task Force) recommendations and the University's in process renaming initiative. Our ongoing commitment to equity and community inclusion continue to shape and reaffirm our values and priorities as a Library and University.

The Opportunity

The Junior Web Application Developer, under the direction of the Head, Library Information Technology Services will create, design, test, implement, and support web-based applications to enhance the quality of library services. The successful candidate will:

Provide technical consultation and training to library staff and users on application development and troubleshooting Research, evaluate and recommend on software solutions, develop related technical documentation and manuals in line with EDI best practices.

Responsibilities: Provide technology support and training to Library staff during the implementation of library technology projects and provide consulting services to library staff.

Provide ongoing monitoring, troubleshooting and maintenance of systems and applications through installations, configurations and maintenance of web application servers and databases

Qualifications: To help us learn more about you, please provide a cover letter and resume describing how you meet the following required qualifications: Successful completion of a post-secondary degree program in Computer Science or other information technology program and a minimum of one (1) year experience in web application development in the following:

Demonstrated experience with client-side web application development using HTML, CSS, Javascript, UI toolkits Demonstrated experience with server-side web development

An equivalent combination of education and experience may be considered. Demonstrated strong knowledge of computer science to work with constantly changing and evolving technology to provide technical support, consulting services and advise on web technology developments and best practices as they apply to library services. Excellent written and verbal communication skills are required to prepare user manuals for new software, scripts and procedures; and to explain detailed and complex procedures. Demonstrated teamwork and interpersonal relationship skills to work collaboratively with internal stakeholders (students and library staff) Strong analytical skills to investigate problems relating to software and recommend appropriate solutions, including willingness to learn and interpret new products and procedures. Ability to make decisions on completing assignments while still remaining within standard practices and methods. A demonstrated ability to work as part of a team and be available for on-call coverage during critical periods or after modifications. Demonstrated commitment to client service to students, faculty and staff Commitment to applying and working towards the development of EDI best practices

Additional Information

Position Number(s) 20000221

Reports To Head, Library Information Technology Services

Vacancy Type Full-time career employee status (FTCE)

Employee Group OPSEU

Work Location Hybrid Monday to Friday (3 days in-person/on-campus based on operational needs and remaining 2 days remote)

Start Date ASAP
End Date NA
Hours of Work 36.25
Grade and Step 10
Salary Scale Min: $62,262.26 up to Step 8:$74,344.40
Target salary: Min: $62,262.26 to
Step 3: $68,035.67

As part of the selection process, candidates may be required to complete an occupational assessment.

Applications will only be accepted online through Toronto Metropolitan University's careersite. Toronto Metropolitan University is committed to the principles of the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act (AODA), and aims to ensure that independence, dignity, integration and equality of opportunity are embedded in all aspects of the university culture.

We will provide an accessible experience for applicants, students, employees, and members of the Toronto Metropolitan University community. We are committed to providing an inclusive and barrier-free work environment, beginning with the recruitment process. If you have restrictions that need to be accommodated to fully participate in any phase of the recruitment process, please contact hr@ryerson.ca. All information received in relation to accommodation will be kept confidential.

For more information, visit Toronto Metropolitan University for Junior Web Application Developer - Library