

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

About Toronto Metropolitan

At the intersection of mind and action, Toronto Metropolitan University is on a transformative path to become Canada's leading comprehensive innovation university. Integral to this path is the placement of equity, diversity and inclusion as fundamental to our institutional culture. Our current academic plan outlines each as core values and we work to embed them in all that we do. We welcome those who have demonstrated a commitment to upholding the values of equity, diversity, and inclusion and will assist us to expand our capacity for diversity in the broadest sense. In addition, to correct the conditions of disadvantage in employment in Canada, we encourage applications from members of groups that have been historically disadvantaged and marginalized, including First Nations, Metis and Inuit peoples, Indigenous peoples of North America, racialized persons, persons with disabilities, and those who identify as women and/or 2SLGBTQ+. Please note that all qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, applications from Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. In April 2022, the university announced our new name of Toronto Metropolitan University, which will be implemented in a phased approach. Learn more about our next chapter. The team Telling the TMU story — that's the role of University Relations. We work with partners inside and outside of the university to enhance the profile and reputation of TMU.

The Opportunity

The Content Strategist is a key member of the central marketing team, whose responsibility it is to organize, optimize and execute content across a variety of digital and social channels for the university. In this role, you will help steward the digital experience at TMU throughout the various stages of the user journey. Beyond strategic optimization of the central website and social channels, you will also serve as a custodian and guide to digital best practices within the university's marketing and communications ecosystem.

The successful candidate will be deeply versed in content marketing and committed to tracking and calculating ROI.

Other key responsibilities will include:

- Creating best content practices guidelines and templates that can be socialized and used by various marketing and communication teams across the university
- Developing workflows/processes for managing content lifecycle, including requesting, creating, editing, publishing and retiring content
- Creating reports that track performance across internal KPI as well as competitor benchmarking
- Developing content calendars for social/digital channels and coordinating publication against strategic priorities
- Conducting keyword research and developing keyword-targeted content
- Developing a backlinking strategy throughout the university's content ecosystem
- Performing periodic content audits with an eye to SEO and accessibility
- Collaborating with IT and UX teams to identify potential CMS improvements
- Strategy-backed storytelling across the web and social media

Qualifications

To help us learn more about you, please provide a cover letter and resume describing how you meet the following

required qualifications:

- Completion of a post-secondary degree program in English, Marketing, Journalism/Communications
- Minimum of 4 years' experience with writing, editing and/or content creation, including experience strategizing, coordinating and developing channel agnostic copy and content.
- Experience using Asana, Trello, Airtable, Monday.com or similar tools is required.
- Required to produce a demonstrable portfolio of work which showcases storytelling/writing experience and the digital applications worked on.
- Exceptional written communication skills and familiarity with scriptwriting and video production.
- Ability to work in a fast-paced environment and effectively manage several projects and deadlines at once
- Ability to work within content guidelines and writing style guides and a desire to push existing standards to the next level
- Demonstrated expertise in website taxonomy and metadata strategies in a website CMS environment
- Google Analytics experience is required; Knowledge of Google Tag Manager would be considered an asset
- Excellent computer skills, including strong knowledge of Adobe Creative Suite, Microsoft Office, including Word, Excel and PowerPoint or the equivalent Google Apps
- Ability to translate complex technical documentation into consumer-friendly language that drives action
