

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

- *Submit 15Five Pulse report weekly/bi-weekly

Program Overview

The Connected North program is delivered by TakingITGlobal, leveraging live, interactive video conferencing technologies to bridge time and distance for students and teachers living in remote northern communities. The program works to change conditions of learning in a way that supports teachers' professional growth, and drives student engagement and well-being.

www.connectednorth.org

The Connected North program consists of three core components:

- 1) Virtual Experts & Field Trips: Live interactive sessions connecting students, guest speakers, and partners to enhance student outcomes and engagement. Content will include curriculum-linked subject matter, cultural exchanges, mentorship through role models and exploration of future pathways.

- 2) Cultural Exchanges: Classroom to classroom sessions on curriculum-linked or cultural sharing group projects and activities.

- 3) Teacher Capacity Building: Professional learning and mentoring sessions on effective use of video conferencing technology and other professional development topics as determined by the interest of the staff.

The content and process are guided by the following Program Principles:

- Relationship Building: Building trust with students, educators and communities by demonstrating respect, humility and transparency in all that we do.

- Empowerment Through Role Models: Connecting students with First Nations, Metis, Inuit and non-Indigenous role models to inspire hope and future pathways.

- Locally Relevant Content: Valuing the role of culture in learning by integrating Indigenous knowledges and perspectives whenever possible.
- Thinking Beyond the Classroom: Understanding that students' experiences within the classroom cannot be disconnected from their realities outside of the classroom including historical and social contexts.
- Adapting Expectations: Working with the unique strengths, challenges and learning goals for each school and letting them guide what success looks like.
- Incorporating a Diversity of Voices: Welcoming input from a range of sources on how we can best support participating students and educators.
