Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

THIS POSTING HAS BEEN EXTENDED TO THE NEW CLOSING DATE OF JANUARY 7, 2021
The Department of Leadership, Higher and Adult Education (LHAE) at the Ontario Institute for Studies in Education (OISE), University of Toronto invites applications for a full-time tenure stream position at the rank of Associate Professor with a specialization in Higher Education Leadership and Administration. The appointment will commence on July 1, 2021 or shortly thereafter.
Applicants must have earned a PhD in Higher Education or a closely related field. We seek to recruit an established scholar of higher education with demonstrated research expertise in higher education leadership and administration, and a clearly demonstrated exceptional record of excellence in research and teaching. We seek candidates whose research and teaching interests complement and enhance existing strengths in LHAE's Higher Education program. The successful candidate will have an established international reputation and will be expected to sustain and lead innovative and independent research at the highest international level.
Candidates are expected to have established a strong record of excellence in research as demonstrated by a sustained record of high-quality publications in top-ranked journals in the field of higher education, presentations at significant conferences, awards and distinctions, the submitted research statement, other noteworthy activities and accomplishments that contribute to the visibility and prominence of the discipline, and strong endorsements from referees of high standing.
Evidence of excellence in teaching at the university level is required, as demonstrated through teaching accomplishments, strong letters of reference, and a teaching dossier including a teaching statement, sample course materials, and teaching evaluations submitted as part of the application.
Demonstrated interest and experience teaching at the graduate level inâ€¯higher educationâ€¯leadership and administration is required.â€¯
The successful candidate will be expected to maintain an outstanding, competitive, and externally funded research program in higher education leadership and administration. Other responsibilities of the position include teaching in the Higher Education graduate program, supervising doctoral and masterâ€™s theses, service to LHAE and to OISE, and working collaboratively with related units across OISE.

Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.
The Department of Leadership, Higher and Adult Education offers graduate programs in Adult Education and Community Development, Educational Leadership and Policy, and Higher Education. The Departmentâ€™s strength in Higher Education is internationally recognized and draws upon its affiliation with the Centre for the Study of Canadian & International Higher Education (CIHE), a community of engaged scholars dedicated to supporting, promoting, and disseminating research on Canadian and international higher education. LHAE also participates with other departments in OISEâ€™s collaborative program in Comparative, International & Development Education (CIDE) and its affiliated research centre (CIDEC), both internationally renowned. For more information on the Department and these centres, please visit the web pages of LHAE (http://www.oise.utoronto.ca/lhae), CIHE (http://www.oise.utoronto.ca/cihe), and CIDEC (http://www.oise.utoronto.ca/cidec).â€¯For further information about collaborative specializations offered by, or affiliated with, LHAE, see: https://www.oise.utoronto.ca/lhae/Collaborative_Specializations/index.html.â€¯
The Ontario Institute for Studies in Education has, for more than a century, made major contributions to advancing education, human development and professional practice around the world.
