

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Temporary Full-time position â€“ (non unionized)

The following statements are intended to describe the general nature and level of work performed. They are not representing an exhaustive list of all responsibilities, duties and skills required.

Bishopâ€™s University is seeking a Legal Counsel & Governance Officer for a temporary full-time position in the Legal department. Reporting to the General Counsel, the incumbent will engage in a wide range of Governance functions and advocacy files and will ensure University compliance with legal requirements, relating to the access to, and the protection of, personal information, procurement legislation, as well as a number of other laws of general application. The Legal Counsel and Governance Officer will work with the General Counsel and the Secretary General and Vice-Principal Government Relations and Planning to update University policies of general application and government reports.

Supporting the Human Resources team, this role also provides legal support for labour relations and employment activities, including collective agreement administration, grievance and issue management, collective bargaining, union/management relations, exempt employee contracts, and labour relations advice and training.

This position has a work week of 35 hours from Monday to Friday with occasional evenings and weekends required. The working period of this role is a minimum of 12 months but will not exceed two years.

Nature of Duties & Responsibilities

- Prepare protocols and information sessions to ensure compliance with legal provisions for the protection of personal information, compliance with laws on the prevention of harassment as well as University obligations in the area of procurement and copyright;
- Identify labour relations issues, developing appropriate solutions and providing advice to senior managers on complex labour relations matters;
- Negotiate settlements on behalf of the University, instructing external legal counsel, and presenting cases on behalf of the University in legal proceedings;
- Resolve labour relations issues where established guidelines have not been set;
- Advise the Manager of Procurement with procurement legal issues;
- Act as the Responsible de l'application des rÃgles contractuelles (RARC) in the absence of the General Counsel;
- Support departments and services with the review or the preparation of contracts;
- Establish a calendar for the regular review of University policies and collaborate in that review;
- Carry out research in support of a range of advocacy files with the federal, Quebec and Sherbrooke governments;
- Collaborate with other University offices in the development of data for reports to management, governance and the government;
- Prepare responses to routine Access to Information requests for the signature of the Secretary General;
- Ensure that governance documents are archived in compliance with applicable legal requirements;
- Ensure that governance web pages are kept up to date;
- Other tasks as assigned.
