

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Lecturer - Full Time (.75 FTE), Midwifery Education Program, Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology. The Midwifery Education Program aims to be a leader in challenging institutional norms and redefining midwifery in Canada by building inclusive spaces for students, faculty, staff, and community supporters who have been systemically excluded. We are committed to scholarly inquiry and emphasize the lifelong ability to learn and grow as individuals and as an organization. Our approach assures the acquisition of the knowledge, skills and values needed to begin and continue to practice midwifery. We foster inclusive and critical thinking in the academic setting that extends into the practice setting and forms the basis for sound professional practice. Applications are invited for a one-year contractually limited appointment (0.75 FTE), at the rank of Lecturer in the Midwifery Education Program, Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology, Faculty of Health Sciences, McMaster University. The ideal candidate will be a registered midwife with a master's degree, expertise in health science education and social justice in midwifery education, experience teaching at the post-secondary level, and a commitment to the supporting scholarship and practice in the area of equity, diversity, and inclusion within midwifery education. Preference will be given to candidates with experience teaching in the Midwifery Education Program. The successful candidate is required to be eligible for registration with the College of Midwives of Ontario. The successful candidate will possess excellent communication, problem solving, and diplomacy skills, and a commitment to working collaboratively within the midwifery faculty and across disciplines. This position will involve responsibilities providing student support to support inclusivity within the Midwifery Education Program. Academic responsibilities will include co-teaching both at the undergraduate and graduate levels. This is a full-time 0.75 MUFA faculty position for a period of one year (potentially renewable). All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be considered first for these positions. To comply with the Government of Canada's reporting requirements, the University is obliged to gather information about applicants' status as either Permanent Residents of Canada or Canadian citizens. Applicants need not identify their country of origin or current citizenship; however, all applicants must include one of the following statements: Yes, I am a citizen or permanent resident of Canada or No, I am not a citizen or permanent of Canada. Commitment to Inclusive Excellence: Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion Statement: The diversity of our workforce is at the core of our innovation and creativity and strengthens our research and teaching excellence. In keeping with its Statement on Building an Inclusive Community with a Shared Purpose, McMaster University strives to embody the values of respect, collaboration, and diversity, and has a strong commitment to employment equity. The University seeks qualified candidates who share our commitment to equity and inclusion, who will contribute to the diversification of ideas and perspectives, and especially welcomes applications from indigenous (First Nations, Metis or Inuit) peoples, members of racialized communities, persons with disabilities, women, and persons who identify as 2SLGBTQ+. As part of McMaster's commitment, all applicants are invited to complete a confidential Applicant Diversity Survey through the online application submission process. The Survey questionnaire requests voluntary self-identification in relation to equity-seeking groups that have historically faced and continue to face barriers in employment. Please refer to the Applicant Diversity Survey - Statement of Collection for additional information. Job applicants requiring accommodation to participate in the hiring process should contact the Human Resources Service Centre at 905-525-9140 ext. 22247 or the Faculty of Health Sciences Human Resources office at ext. 22207 to communicate accommodation needs. McMaster University is strongly committed to employment equity within its community and to recruiting a diverse faculty and staff. The University encourages applications from all qualified candidates including women, persons with disabilities, First Nations, Metis and Inuit persons, members of racialized communities and LGBTQ-identified persons. If you require any form of accommodation throughout the recruitment and selection procedure, please contact the Human Resources Service Centre at 905-525-9140 ext. 222-HR (22247). McMaster's standard statement of commitment to employment equity as outlined in the McMaster University Employment Equity Policy and Recruitment Statement; How to apply: Interested applicants should forward their cover letter, curriculum vitae, research interests, the names and contact information of at least three professional references and a brief statement describing contributions to inclusive excellence in teaching, research, or service in academic, professional or community contexts to the Mosaic Career Opportunities page. Applications will be considered until June 10, 2022. For more information about the position, please contact: Dr. Liz Darling, Assistant Dean, Midwifery Education Program Faculty of Health Sciences, McMaster University MUMC 4H24, 1280 Main Street West, Hamilton, Ontario, L8N 3Z5 This position will begin in 2022 contingent on completion of the recruitment processes and candidate availability. McMaster University is strongly committed to Employment Equity within its community and to recruiting a diverse faculty and staff.
