

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

The Department of Athletics and Recreation (a division of Student Affairs) is seeking an experienced therapist to join our team at McMaster University. The Department provides students, staff, faculty, alumni and the greater community with the opportunity to pursue athletic excellence and recreational activities. The mission of the department is to cultivate human potential and well-being through recreation and sport. The operating units of the department include interuniversity athletics, recreation, and sport medicine. The Athletic Therapist/Physiotherapist will be an important part of the high-performance team and have an opportunity to help the department achieve its goals of inclusive excellence and strong results while delivering an excellent student-athlete experience.

Job Summary This position is a 10 month contract position. The successful candidate will be responsible for the overall health and welfare of student athletes with a particular emphasis on field coverage and clinical care. This position is accountable to the Head Athletic Therapist to provide therapeutic treatments involved in the prevention, immediate care, and rehabilitation and reconditioning of sports injuries sustained by student-athletes at the University. Accountabilities Interview patients and conduct physical examinations. Recognize, assess, manage, and rehabilitate musculoskeletal injuries. Initiate, design, and implement specialized therapy programs. Observe and analyze patients during treatment sessions. Refer injured patients to the appropriate specialized medical personnel as required. Consult with medical professionals on patients' progress and treatment plans. Create, update, and maintain electronic and hard copy patient charts, injury, and treatment records. Gather and compile information required to write, update and maintain a variety of documents. Develop and deliver presentations and information seminars. Advise patients on appropriate exercise and rehabilitation programs. Assist with the fitting of standard and custom sport injury braces. Liaise between student athletes and coaches. Provide first-aid training. Plan and coordinate the scheduling of student field therapists for coverage at required games and practices. Monitor inventory and order supplies as required.
