

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

POSITION: Executive Director

LOCATION: Regina, Saskatchewan

REPORTS TO: Board of Directors

DIRECT REPORTS: Manager of Finance & Administration, Development Officer, Marketing & Creative Officer, Patron Services Manager, Education and Outreach Manager, Production Manager, Librarian, Personnel Manager, Musicians (in conjunction with the Music Director)

WEBSITE: <https://www.reginasymphony.com/>

THE ORGANIZATION

The Regina Symphony Orchestra (RSO) reaches people from all walks of life to strengthen its community through the power of live orchestral music across southern Saskatchewan. We evolve and grow the RSO to provide impactful musical experiences for generations to come.

Established in 1908, the RSO is committed to spreading the gift of music through performance, promotion and musical education.

Based at the Conexus Arts Centre in Regina, and led by the innovative and exciting Music Director, Gordon Gerrard, the RSO is a full-scale professional orchestra performing a 39-week season including: a pre-season outdoor concert, eight Masterworks concerts, five Pops concerts, three Canada Life Kids concerts, six Government House chamber concerts, and three Special concerts including perennial favourite, Handel's Messiah.

As well, the Regina Symphony Chamber Players put on dozens of school concerts each season, present concerts in southern Saskatchewan communities, and offer free concerts in Regina. Each season, the RSO engages with more than 30,000 students, First Nations youth, and new audiences through 14 education and outreach programs.

The RSO is committed to the principles arising from the Calls to Action from the Truth and Reconciliation Commission.

THE POSITION

In partnership with the Music Director, the Executive Director will lead one of Canada's oldest symphony orchestras into new opportunities for dynamic growth and renewed connections with the communities of southern Saskatchewan.

The Executive Director works with the Board, Music Director and administration team in the development of a strategic long-range plan for the RSO. The Executive Director also develops and executes the annual business strategies and has responsibility for all business and administrative operations.

Working with the Board, staff, musicians and volunteers, the Executive Director will advance the RSO in the community, and act with the Chair as a senior representative for fundraising and public relations purposes.

The Executive Director will support, guide, and direct the RSO's commitment in opening dialogues on social issues and implementing relevant recommendations from the Truth and Reconciliation Commission.
