

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Legal and Policy Advisor

Policy and Public Affairs Division

6 to 12-month Contract (Secondment Opportunities will be considered)

Target hiring range $75,194 - $87,727

Position Profile:

The Ontario Hospital Association (OHA) is committed to achieving a high-performing health system and focused on supporting our members and partners in many ways, particularly in the areas of quality, integration, and value. The Legal and Policy Advisor collaborates with OHA staff, member hospitals, the Ministry of Health and Long-Term Care and other health care stakeholders in supporting the OHA's thought leadership initiatives.

You are a self-starter with critical thinking skills, a highly developed analytical ability and project management skills. You have extensive experience in providing research, legal and policy analysis support on a variety of regulatory and professional issues impacting hospitals. You are a great listener and your communication style, energy and self-confidence motivates people to work with you. You thrive in a fast-paced environment and you have a strong sense of accountability for your work and the service that you and your team provide to your colleagues, the organization, and stakeholders.

The Position:

Reporting to the Director, Legal Policy and Professional Issues, you provide legal and policy advice, legal research and project management and committee leadership to various OHA initiatives, working with multidisciplinary stakeholder groups related to legal and professional issues. You will:

- Conduct policy-based research and jurisdictional scans

- Prepare briefing notes and policy options papers, and legal research to support senior management decisions

- Lead legal analysis to assist OHA members with ongoing and emerging sector issues

- Support the development of resources and educational materials to assist member hospitals with legislative, legal and professional issues, including emerging case law, regulatory and legislative changes

- Prepare advocacy materials, including policy positions and submissions, to relevant system stakeholders

- Provide expertise and support to relevant committees, sub-committees and working groups

- Consult with OHA membership and liaise with government and health care stakeholders

- Perform other duties as assigned by the Director, Legal, Policy and Professional Issues

The Candidate:

You have an understanding of legislative and regulatory processes; knowledge of current issues affecting the health care sector, including but not limited to privacy, risk management and labour; well-developed research and analytical abilities; excellent interpersonal, facilitation and written and verbal communication skills; and superior organizational and project management skills.

A degree in law is required. Hospital, healthcare, or another relevant public sector experience will be considered an asset.

You are a highly motivated self-starter, dedicated team player who enjoys working in a fast-paced environment and can build successful working relationships with a variety of stakeholders.

The ideal candidate is dynamic, positive, collaborative, persuasive, resilient, driven and results-oriented and displays the values of Humility, Discovery, and Passion.

The Organization:

The OHA is a not-for-profit Association. Our purpose is serving Ontario's hospitals to build a better health system. At the OHA, our members are at the heart of everything we do. Through advocacy, learning and engagement, labour relations and improved access to data and analytics, the OHA is enhancing the direct services it provides to members.

Interested in helping the Ontario Hospital Association (OHA) build a better health system

We can offer you a fulfilling role, an inspiring and creative place to work, and the chance to change the health care system (for the better) – and oh yeah, have a lot of fun in the process. As you may know, employee engagement is key in the success of any business, and the OHA is proud of our 99 percent employee engagement rate.

Need more proof the OHA is a great place to work? Well, how about this? We've been recognized as one of the Best Workplaces in Canada, five times, as well as Best Workplaces in Canada for Women.

In serving Ontario's hospitals to build a better health system, the OHA is a dynamic organization offering innovative education, tools, and practices that enable people to deliver effective, safe and efficient health care. For more information visit www.oha.com.
