

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Link's Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Vancouver Island University
Director, Procurement

Known as a centre of excellence for teaching, Vancouver Island University (VIU) produces quality graduates who are in demand by employers in the local community and region, across the country and around the world. VIU offers three supportive campus communities to a highly diverse student population, focused on innovative teaching methods, undergraduate and graduate research, scholarly activities, open access, and creating an exceptional learning experience for our students. Located on British Columbia's spectacular West Coast on the traditional territory of the Coast Salish Peoples, VIU is committed to working in partnership with Indigenous peoples.

Reporting to the Associate Vice-President, Finance, the Director, Procurement (Director), is responsible for the University-wide procurement function supporting best practices, negotiation, and best-value opportunities. Through strategic leadership and development, the Director champions business transformation initiatives within the department and across the University and strategically develops and leads the evolution of Supply Chain Management at VIU. The Director is responsible for developing and implementing University-wide policies, systems, and procedures that meet strategic procurement objectives, including those related to large scale capital projects, and ensures the needs of the University and its partners are being met in the procurement of goods and services through the efficient, effective, and financially optimal operation of the procurement portfolio. They will work collaboratively to drive best practices in the creation and implementation of short and long-term supply strategies, cost savings, and value on behalf of the University.

As the ideal candidate, you are a strategic supply chain and vendor management professional who has worked in large, complex environments with highly diverse customer bases and partner groups. Collaborating with all levels across the University and externally, the Director will demonstrate customer service excellence and will implement, manage, and lead the University on all procurement and contract management programs, with a focus on creating process efficiencies and value through the constant pursuit of excellence. The Director possesses a supportive leadership approach and the ability to lead in complex situations, and will be a visionary individual who can work effectively and respectfully with their team, the institution, and the communities VIU touches. A customer-centric mindset and a collaborative vendor management philosophy will be of utmost importance. Vancouver Island University embraces the principle of employment equity and encourages applications from women, persons with disabilities, visible minorities, and people of Indigenous descent.
