

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Link's Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Director, Sustainability Office
University of Regina

The University of Regina is currently accepting applications for the Director of Sustainability position. Building on a strong foundation of University sustainability commitment, the Director will work collaboratively to integrate themes of sustainability, adaptation, and resilience into administrative, operational, and academic functions of the University.

Reporting directly to the Vice President Research, the Director will be responsible for providing leadership and support to the University of Regina community as it develops a plan for sustainability and pursues its ambitious climate neutrality goals as part of the overall University Strategic Plan. The Director will design an effective educational communication strategy for promoting campus sustainability and advancing opportunities for interdisciplinary research to address complex sustainability issues. Successful candidates will have a PhD with experience developing, planning, and implementing strategic initiatives, advanced knowledge of sustainability concepts, best practices and demonstrated knowledge of environmental management issues and initiatives.
