

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

Showcase your leadership skills in this unique opportunity with the Ministry of Northern Development, Mines, Natural Resources and Forestry, to lead, develop and coordinate land claims and consultation-related initiatives and negotiations for the Indigenous Consultation and Partnerships Branch, Mines and Minerals Division.

What can I expect to do in this role

In this role, you will:

- Provide leadership, expertise and direction to the ministry on Indigenous land claim management
- Lead and represent the ministry in Ontario's Indigenous land claim negotiations and public consultation processes
- Develop networking processes between key Indigenous and industry clients and stakeholders
- Facilitate and manage resolution of concerns and issues with and between key Indigenous and industry clients and stakeholders, including other ministries and levels of government
- Lead and coordinate the provision of consultation services (Indigenous affairs, negotiations, operational and policy information, interpretation, analyses, recommendations)
- Lead the development of negotiations, issues management, operational and policy-specific communication plans and strategies
- Provide strategic policy advice to ministries and agencies, boards, and commissions, on Indigenous affairs, negotiations, issues, relations, programs, policy projects and initiatives
- Lead project teams conducting studies/projects
- Lead the research and analysis of ministry policies, programs, and Cabinet submissions
- Coordinate the planning and development of research projects
- Lead and coordinate the development of in-depth reports, present policy options and recommendations to ministry senior management for decision-making purposes, and prepare documentation (e.g. Cabinet submissions, legislative amendments).

Note: This position requires travel throughout Ontario, including travel to remote Indigenous communities

Location: South Porcupine, Sudbury, Thunder Bay

How do I qualify
