

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Link's Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Title: Administrative Assistant (III)

Unit/Project Description: The Department of Pediatrics at McMaster University and McMaster Children's Hospital is home to over 200 pediatricians, scientists, teachers, and trainees whose collective mission is to improve the wellbeing of children and their families – both locally, and around the world. We are proud to represent faculty who hold Canada Research Chairs, are members of the Order of Canada, and are national award-winning teachers. Our members leverage their voices as child health leaders to support our communities and advocate for change so that all children, regardless of health status, can experience a fulfilling life. Our administrators are valued team members and are critical to the success and impact of our work. Our Vision: A brighter path for every child and their family. Our Mission: Together, we lead to advance child and youth health. We are committed to patient-centred care, research, education, learning, and advocacy. We strive for diverse representation, inclusive participation, equitable opportunities, and we address structural barriers to improve healthcare outcomes. Our innovative work achieves global impact and enhances the well-being of all children and their families. We support the welfare of our team members and engage with respect and accountability. Values: We value compassion, collaboration, excellence, and innovation. We recognize it is our responsibility to create environments where all people feel safe and supported. We invite you to find out more about us by visiting our website:

<https://healthsci.mcmaster.ca/pediatrics> The department is led by the Chair/Chief of Pediatrics with an executive team consisting of Deputy Chief and Associate Chairs, Academic;

Education; Equity, Diversity, and Inclusion (EDI); and Research along with an Administrative Director. The executive is supported by a high functioning administrative team, who play an integral role in the success of the leadership group and help to achieve departmental deliverables.

The primary focus of this administrative role will be to support the Chief and the Deputy Chief of Pediatrics. As a member of the executive administrative team, the assistant will be a collaborative partner, and could be involved in other executive or departmental projects, events, and initiatives. Key functions of this position include credentialing of professional hospital staff, facilitation of onboarding clinical faculty within the relevant hospital IT systems, coordinating meetings, supporting relevant committees, and enabling portfolio projects led by the Chief/Deputy Chief. To be successful in this position, the assistant must have initiative, strong organizational and time management skills, work well independently, and within a team. In the department's commitment to diversity, equity and inclusion we welcome applicants who identify as a member of an equity-seeking group including Indigenous Peoples (First Nations, Metis and Inuit peoples), women, persons with disabilities, racialized persons and LGBTQ+ identified individuals.
