Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

MÃ©tis Nation British Columbia (MNBC) represents nearly 90,000 self-identified MÃ©tis people in BC. To date, 19,000 MÃ©tis citizens are provincially registered with MNBC. The MÃ©tis National Council and the Provincial Government of British Columbia, as well as the Federal Government of Canada, recognize MÃ©tis Nation British Columbia as the Governing Nation for MÃ©tis in BC. MNBC represents thirty-nine MÃ©tis Chartered Communities in British Columbia, and its mandate is to develop and enhance opportunities for MÃ©tis communities by implementing culturally relevant social and economic programs and services.

Reporting to the President and responsible to the Board of Directors, the primary objective of the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) is to provide the link between the Board and the operation in advancing the goals and purpose of MNBC. In that capacity, the CEO is accountable for the operational leadership and management of MNBC in accordance with the strategic goals and direction set by the Board. The CEO is expected to report to the Board on an ongoing basis in respect to issues and results and to bring forward recommendations in respect to policies, programs, services, and staff where applicable. The CEO sets targets, prepares annual business plans and budgets, oversees all operations and issues, delegates, and monitors performance. The CEO works with external partners and stakeholders to ensure opportunities for MNBC are leveraged in a way that secures its growth and sustainability and represents the organization in reporting to federal and provincial governments as required.

Experience

The ideal candidate brings senior executive experience in a growing, dynamic organization. He or she is a strategic and big picture thinker with natural leadership skills who possesses strong relationship building qualities and a commitment to delivering exceptional programs and services and best practices in governance. Flexible, responsive, and open-minded, the CEO recognizes the unique nature of what MNBC is doing and appreciates the impact this work will have for generations of MÃ©tis people in BC. The incumbent is known for his or her ability to develop credibility and effective, trusting working relationships with elected officials, staff, external stakeholders, and community members. Experience in human resource management and an ability to leverage opportunities for the well-being of the Nation will be a significant asset.
