

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce Canadian Indigenous Job Seekers to a new approach to job searching. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Canadian Indigenous Peoples with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Job Summary

Reporting to the Director, Interdepartmental New Initiatives, the Indigenous Engagement Administrator is responsible for providing senior executive administrative support to the Interdepartmental New Initiatives department, with a specific focus on supporting the development and expansion of the Indigenous Program. This includes being a key contributor and driving force behind the successful implementation of pilot programs and various initiatives, while managing team timelines, deadlines, and deliverables.

Key Responsibilities:

- Liaise with a variety of internal and external stakeholders, including our members and employees, local schools, government agencies and partner organizations;
- Schedule meetings within the department and with external stakeholders; coordinating schedules and availability as necessary;
- Take meeting minutes, summarizing at a high level what was discussed, decisions made, action items agreed to, timeline and parties responsible;
- Distribute meeting notes to appropriate parties, keeping track of action items and following-up with the appropriate parties as necessary;
- Maintain project timelines and collaborate with the Director to ensure projects are on track while contributing ideas and support;
- Assist with departmental reporting, including reviewing and proofreading reports for accuracy and consistency;
- Maintain department documentation, regularly updating and revising as required; in particular, keeping regular maintenance of the Consultation Record;
- Create, review and revise PowerPoint presentations, working with internal Communications team to ensure appropriate branding and imaging is used;
- Develop a network of relationships with allied agencies, communities and entities;
- Track and coordinate assigned projects and provide regular status reports, including follow-up, as required;
- Coordinate events, tracking applications and attendees, sending event materials out ahead of time and gathering feedback afterwards; and
- Other duties and responsibilities as assigned from time to time.

Key Requirements:

- Three (3) plus years of experience in a senior administrative and coordination capacity;
- Excellent interpersonal, communication and presentation skills, both verbally and written;
- Proven self-starter with a high degree of initiative and the ability to see projects through to culmination;
- Ability to work collaboratively as a key member of a team and independently with minimum supervision;
- High degree of tact, professionalism and confidentiality;
- Attention to detail, refined organizational and time management skills and the ability to multi-task;
- Intermediate proficiency with MS Office, in particular Word, Excel, PowerPoint and Outlook;
- Proven ability to prioritize competing requirements and deadlines under pressure;
- Ability to travel up to 15% of the time; including occasional travel to the CPABC office and communities for meetings.

Preferred Experience:

- Previous experience working in, on or with an Indigenous community, specifically British Columbia Indigenous communities, would be beneficial;
- Proven ability to foster understanding and engage with a variety of Indigenous Peoples and communities, with a particular focus on relationship-building, is preferred;
- An interest and passion for Indigenous studies, including prior experience researching and analyzing relevant topics and subjects, would be an asset.

Location: Our head office is located in downtown Vancouver, BC. There is an opportunity for this role to work remotely from your own community within BC. Your preferred work arrangement will be discussed during the interview process.

Our Indigenous Engagement Initiative is one of CPABC's key strategic objectives. As such, we strongly encourage applicants who identify as Indigenous Canadian (First Nations, Métis, Inuit) to apply.
