

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Link's Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Bring your marketing, communications and media relations expertise to the role of Marketing & Communications Officer with Granville Island in Vancouver, B.C.

This full-time permanent position within the Public Affairs and Programming Department, is responsible for developing and managing effective marketing, communications and media relations initiatives to promote Granville Island as a preferred destination for shopping, dining, and engaging in cultural activities.

How You Will Be Contributing

• Effectively manage multimedia projects including concept development, production, and implementation.

• Supervise the advertising agency of record, contractors, content providers, and suppliers including setting priorities, project specifications, timelines and project budgets.

• Oversee the architecture and design of Granville Island websites and ensure ongoing content quality. Edit, write copy, make regular updates and control quality of all information and functionality of the site.

• Co-ordinate marketing, communications and media activities to support successful Granville Island cultural events.

• Work with the Manager, Public Affairs and Programming, to develop and execute communications strategies for planning and operational issues of interest to the public and on-island tenants.

• Oversee the Website & Social Media Coordinator position: leverage and optimize digital media within a variety of integrated existing and emerging marketing vehicles, including web, social media and public relations channels.

• Assist in creation of supporting communications collateral including news releases, event programs, and associated web content. Provide content for consumer lifestyle and travel media outlets and host media visits.

• Respond to media calls which are often of a sensitive and urgent nature. In the absence of the Manager, act as media spokesperson.

• Maintain day-to-day relationships with media relations contractors.

• Establish performance metrics and monitoring and reporting mechanisms to capture information, monitor results, and generate reports on the usefulness and effectiveness of communications and marketing activities.

• Lead the development and adherence to branding guidelines. Provide criteria and direction to ensure compliance with recommendations and best practices for content management. Ensure consistency in the delivery of Granville Island messaging and brand.

What We Are Looking For

• Minimum 5 (five) years of relevant experience and Bachelor's Degree in Marketing, Communications or related discipline. Or an equivalent combination of related education and experience.

• Demonstrated experience in planning, developing and implementing communications and marketing strategies, plans and tactics as well as in developing a variety of communications products.

• Demonstrated experience in writing and editing communications and marketing plans and a variety of communications and marketing products

• Knowledge of current industry trends and technology and a willingness to stay abreast of changes through continuous learning.

• Strong oral and written communication skills including presentation skills

• Strong client management skills with the ability to build and maintain relationships

• Intermediate knowledge of Adobe Creative Suite, including Illustrator, In-Design, Photoshop, Dreamweaver, and Acrobat.

• Strong project management and organizational skills and the ability to multi-task and manage numerous projects concurrently.

• Knowledge and understanding of Granville Island's mission and history an asset.
