

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Supply chain management expertise required

Manage the team responsible for supporting overall procurement and third-party risk management. You'll provide strategic direction, ensuring the program is effectively implemented, monitored and reported on across the organization.

What you'll do:

- Mentor the team as they develop, monitor and maintain the organization's procurement and third party risk management program
- Guide the program's management activities to ensure it is effectively implemented across the organization
- Monitor and report on compliance
- Lead key management activities to continue to mature the overall organizational function

What we're looking for:

- Experienced leader with strong initiative who is passionate about helping others succeed
- Strategic thinker with sound business judgment
- Confident communicator who can build relationships across the organization

What you'll need:

- An undergraduate degree in business administration, economics or commerce and at least six years of experience (or equivalent combination of education and experience); understanding of legislation and regulations that impact public sector procurement in Canada is an asset
- Supply Chain Management Professional (SCMP) designation
- Demonstrated expertise in strategic sourcing, operational procurement, third-party risk and performance management, and contract negotiation
