

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Links Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

Description

BC Ministry of Forests, Lands, Natural Resource Operations and Rural Development

Fort St. John

Director, Strategic Initiatives

$90,900.00 â€“ $118,400.00 annually

This position is located in Fort St. John, BC. Victoria and other locations close to a major BC airport may be considered, subject to ministry operational requirements.

The Ministry of Forests, Lands, Natural Resource Operations and Rural Development is the Provinceâ€™s agency responsible for land and resource management in BC, which includes the protection of the Provinceâ€™s archaeological and heritage resources. Operating on a provincial land base of over 94 million hectares, the Ministry ensures the sustainable management of forest, wildlife, water and other land-based resources; works with Indigenous and rural communities to strengthen and diversify their economies; and, supports activities that provide environmental, economic, cultural and social benefits.

The Director, Strategic Initiatives develops and maintains a broad network of strategic and business leadership relationships across the Natural Resource Sector agencies to communicate and collaborate project objectives and progress, and promote successful delivery of the priorities and goals of the Ministry. Through this function, this role leads and contributes to strategies associated with the natural resource sector shift to the One Provincial Land and Resource Manager promoting economic and environmental sustainability.

If your proven leadership style includes excellent problem solving, communication and change management skills with the ability to exercise good judgement with a high degree of tact and diplomacy in a variety of environments and situations, we look forward to receiving your application. Qualifications for this role include:

â€¢ Post-secondary education in a field related to natural resource management, business/public administration, First Nations studies, or an equivalent combination of related education and experience. Preference may be given for post-secondary education in a natural resource management related field [such as forestry, agrology, etc.].

• Significant [5 or more years] experience in natural resource management, or an equivalent combination of education and experience.

• Significant [5 or more years] experience working with First Nations™ communities and facilitating First Nations™ consultations or negotiations.

• Experience in a management capacity dealing with politically sensitive and/or provincially significant issues.

• Experience managing and leading geographically dispersed multi-disciplinary staff.

• Must have a valid Class 5 BC driver's licence [or equivalent].

Preference may be given for the following:

• Experience developing policy, procedures and corporate practices.

• Experience in a senior management capacity including business and organizational planning.
