

Indigenous.Link

Canada's fastest growing Indigenous career portal, Careers.Indigenous.Link is pleased to introduce a new approach to job searching for Indigenous Job Seekers of Canada. Careers.Indigenous.Link brings simplicity, value, and functionality to the world of Canadian online job boards.

Through our partnership with Indigenous.Link's Diversity Recruitment Program, we post jobs for Canada's largest corporations and government departments. With our vertical job search engine technology, Indigenous Job Seekers can search thousands of Indigenous-specific jobs in just about every industry, city, province and postal code.

Careers.Indigenous.Link offers the hottest job listings from some of the nation's top employers, and we will continue to add services and enhance functionality ensuring a more effective job search. For example, during a search, job seekers have the ability to roll over any job listing and read a brief description of the position to determine if the job is exactly what they're searching for. This practical feature allows job seekers to only research jobs relevant to their search. By including elements like this, Careers.Indigenous.Link can help reduce the time it takes to find and apply for the best, available jobs.

The team behind Indigenous.Link is dedicated to connecting Indigenous Peoples of Canada with great jobs along with the most time and cost-effective, career-advancing resources. It is our mission to develop and maintain a website where people can go to work!

The role:

Working closely with their designated HR Consultants and supporting their respective client groups, the HR Advisor – Indigenous HR Support, coordinates and oversees recruitment processes, provides guidance in the application of the collective agreements, and assists in the development and review of job descriptions. They also plays a key role in promoting and providing Indigenous HR project support across the university - primarily focused on the recruitment and retention of Indigenous employees.

In addition, this role acts in an HR consulting capacity for a small group of designated clients, providing them assistance in all areas of day to day human resource related matters including performance management, collective agreement compliance, staff development and organizational effectiveness.

The qualifications and experience we're looking for:

- University degree with courses in human resources is required.

- A minimum of 3 years HR experience in a generalist role required.

- Experience working in a complex unionized environment preferred.

- Knowledge of employment practices, Human Rights Legislation and Employment Standards is required.

- Knowledge of the University policies and procedures is an asset.

- Strong working knowledge of the Microsoft Office suite of products including Word, Excel and PowerPoint or other equivalent software is required.

- An acceptable equivalent combination of education and experience may be considered.

- Excellent communication and problem solving skills including the ability to communicate with individuals at all levels of the organization are required.

- Must have excellent organizational and analytical skills.

- Must be able to establish and foster supportive working relationships.

- Must be able to work independently and in a team environment.

- Good time management skills.

- Demonstrated understanding of Indigenous values and culture as well as the challenges/opportunities that exist related to the recruitment and retention of Indigenous employees is required.

- Demonstrated ability to incorporate Indigenous values when working with clients is required.

- Demonstrated strong, positive working relationships, commitment and experiences with various Indigenous communities and organizations both internal and external to the university is required.

- Demonstrated ability and commitment to serving diverse clients is required.

- Satisfactory work record, including punctuality and attendance is required.

THIS POSITION IS DESIGNATED FOR INDIGENOUS CANDIDATES. APPLICANTS MUST SELF-DECLARE ON THEIR COVER LETTER/RESUME AS INDIGENOUS (FIRST NATION, METIS AND/OR INUIT).

Why the University of Manitoba
